

W. J. P.

W.

I had the honour to advise you my draught of 1689 viz of my last 28th post, in my bill payable at W. B. & Co. New-Sir I am favour'd with that you have been pleas'd to write me in date of the 20th post; and am mightily oblig'd to the assurances you give me that my draughts shall always meet with due honour by you, that I already know

By a good Experience. I shall accordingly to your orders, hereafter Correspond with Mr Henry Swell for all what I may come to. Relating to the Service of his Royal Highness, though I will continue to draw up^{ies} you. as for the Wines I shall send be sure nothing shall be wanting of my Care & Endeavour by all ways to answer the honour I have to be Intrusted With such Glorious a Commission. I hope you'll give

I leave to you personally my respects this summer, intending if please god to set out for England at the latter end of May, I would heartily be glad to assure you how much I am

Yours

Your very humble & most Obedient servant
J. Bennet
