

My dear Lady Almoner
I am much obliged to you for your very kind letter. Poor dear Mr. ^{James} Pell is going a way for his health is so bad -
If you have any regard to me you will write to her & try to con-
-sole her ^{do} if you love me I lose a great deal when she likes me indeed she is a ^{charming} woman & a wo-man that is far above Mr Udney for the more

I see of Mr Campbell
the more I love but Mr Udney I still continue to dislike & when you come to town I want to have a conversation with you about her Do not be angry with me

if you are new to you would quite adore her she is so charming a woman
she tells me my fault & in short is above flattery let me hear of
in your next letter that you love her do say so of that you have a regard for her you have no idea how unhappy

I am. I can scarcely write to you I have got such a headache for I loved her dear
by way do not be
angry with me
I am yours ever
Affly
C
