Many thanks to you dear Miss Hunt for your very kind present & excellent letter, the latter I shall always keep & often read as not only coming from a friend but also from one who is a sincere well wisher to all that may tend to my happiness.

I hope you continue in good health & spirits. I was very sorry to hear of the death of General Simp--coe: poor M^{rs} Simpcoe, I wonder how she supports this calamity! having you to console her, I hope she will soon recover.

As I am no great scribe you will pardon me if I conclude so hastily & beg you to Believe me to be

Dear Miss Hunt your Affle Charlotte.
