Dear Miss Hunt

I will only trouble you with a very few lines just to say that according to your wish & my promise I have sent by the post a parcel directed to you & containing two proof prints of the Prince which I hope you will like & find good resemblances. There are two of them in the Expresses hands now & I will take care to send you the moment they are published — I hope this opportunity of expressing the pleasure I felt at seeing Ever again so frequently & so comfortably after so many years ~~of absence~~ undelayed & of knowing one's friends & acquaintance who I shall have seen & — Ever they probably have been by the papers that I have given been an invalid & compare the state to the invalid but to the Robins & Sophia that latter I have been a constant visitor since the last of Wales, indeed I have suffered a deal, but I have it has been all for good & will terminate favorably — I am getting stronger & on the whole am better the medical attendants think we are on well at least think better news than

I was — Ever the first time today I was carried down stairs I took an airing to I shall find it is naturally to be expected, but I am confident I shall be much improved for it, after so long a confinement.
I am in hopes if this fine weather lasts that I will be able daily to drive out as I have no other satisfaction that being bathed carried down stairs & stairs — I hope to be terminated soon however favorably & safely, & that I am quite well. — The weather which is perfect to wish, I am is full of sun The country is all so that I am hardly ever ever towards me in I am sure it, indeed the
