

1814 No 165
 James 26th Feb
 My dear Mother
 I have just received your kind letter of the 20th and am glad to hear you are all well. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present but I will write again in a few days. I am your affectionate son James

[The page contains dense, handwritten text in cursive script, which is largely illegible due to extreme fading and overlapping ink strokes. The text appears to be a continuous narrative or list of entries.]

[The page contains dense, handwritten text in cursive script, which is almost entirely obscured by numerous vertical red scribbles. The text is illegible due to the heavy red markings.]

pulled a number of ...
 I should be a sorry that even have not been from them & they are quite ...
 of their tea ...
 looking ...
 good ...
 a very ...
 I have ...
 is a large ...
 I in the ...
 its ...
 has in ...
 - which ...
 can be ...
 the ...
 by ...
 one ...
 water & ...
 family ...

I had heard of the late Ems word of his before but at present the subject, we in house & I and were told to that that the family of the British Council.
 Oh. I am glad indeed my dear that you have of late expected my commission, & with a happy success. I shall be glad to hear account of it, when I hear from you.
 I accepted the petition with the Ems plan as I find I had been quite forgot to give you of that matter ever since he only by some how I have been in state of health. I am glad you shall at least it is unwieldy. I am sure the "Catholick" boy led me to of you to your letter from me in relation to a commission his father wrote to him about France & the League to England & his ambassadors. As it became known in the East of France of France. He was one of the best wisest men of France & truly affable and polite as well as the best of his times as well as for the country I expected it would be well I would have known the country I allowed it to remain open by putting no other restraints upon it. As for the other we committed to recall to this end to discover France adding as a peculiar charm they continued to be in a summit — and thus of France etc etc etc etc have a chance of being seen before you have been informed of it I had I have told what the plan was promising a kind of general pass to the house & to the office of the Treasury is covered at least I have this winter was to tell the old little person was full of his most capable & had been seen them to contradict some of my points of his, I did not when I had them looked He is being more alive than to Scotland to bring the them by his own will, to see the thing was shown before in the day & to be performed I have been thing & the English Director advised from Cannon, it will do him the about them or my thoughts. The letters to me are all good

Professors & students of the various classes from knowledge of the various sciences of which they were the objects of study by their own knowledge of the various sciences
by their own knowledge of the various sciences

The Lady Euphrosyne

Ms. A. 1. 1. 1. 1.

to be a...
make by her own...
writing her own...
of which there were...
knows make it...
case nothing to...