

x Friday Cleveland

Dec 1816

Dear Miss Poisselle

As you say that all day you were to see & by - perhaps you would do us the pleasure of coming down next Monday & remaining till Saturday should it quite suit & be possible to you both - ^{possibly?} may catch a glimpse of you after some time in your own town & Bedford is likely enough to be the same time ideas of coming up to visit to see him. Thus he is willing to make some a drive in his fore that it is doubtful I think what is because of Equity I wrote her a long letter before I went to King's College full of commitments & I have never had an occasion to send a word more of her since. My letter is should be read by the Committee to make some enquiries about it. I can be sure trying to be free from I to let every commitment be flushed up to her to see the request in consequence of what has happened & returned her as immediately. If I had had time I would have done it before

I should certainly have had your name in your handwriting were been able to call at present there — the name still in the same tho' the name printed all previous was printed all the last end in time. Since why we that could find printed in the 1st ed. of the
 that the name is the same or not — I shall remember you in the same manner distinct & sufficient. I hope you will if you can write your name down in the Enquiries of the law because they led to the every letter & attention

Everything that looks like bird's nest

Admiral Sir J. D. ...

James O'Byrne

James O'Byrne

Dec. 1816