

10 Sept 1805

My dear Lady Albemarle,

I cannot say how much I am obliged to you, and Lord Albemarle, for the very kind, and magnificent present of Partridges which you were so good as to give me.
They were very acceptable I assure you, and the first we had this year. When we feasted on them we remembered the kind donors.

Let me thank you also for offering me some Pheasants: don't think me a little gourmand if I say, I am very fond of them.

You are very good for saying you were sorry at my having been ill. I am now quite well, and have learn't a little pruden-

-ce from my late indispo-
-sition.

Pray give my love to all your little children and believe me,
My dear Lady Mbe-
marle,

your ever aff:
Charlotte
