You will see by the two enclosed that poor Amely is very ill, I have at last taken a resolution, that if she will not chuse that which your friend has so long advised, I will have it done, & will goe to Kensington to morrow to put an end to it. I will leave the choice of him who is to perform the operation to her. I beg you to ask your friend whether it ought to be made in the back or arm. & if she may be brought in a chair from Kensington to St.
 James's. I stay my dear friend let me know it to night, & his opinion of the Linbina. I am under most cruel uneasiness for what hope is there from such people
 Caroline

+ Dr Friend advised that she sh<sup>d</sup> have a scaton made which was complied with but not with great difficulty, it had the effect proposed, was open about a year, & was then
