I beg you my dear Clayton to tell our friend, that the thing is resolv'd. they won't trust any of the physicians or surgeons
 there the Apothecary
 in whom I confide
 shall do it. as the car of Amely runs much
 I would have you know whether it should be done during that time.
 She is otherwise very well without oppression & without the convulsion which made her close her jaws. this shews
 the necessity of it but Je adieu my dear Clayton to morrow send me a word of answer
 before I goe to the drawing room
 Caroline.
