vous este bien tendre ma chere amie, de ne laisser oue vous me marquez, votre attention, le Medecin, juge come une home de sans, est connessance, en cfaitte, j'etrouve weilhome, come il vous l'adite, et il se porte mieur asteur quil n'afait pendans toute la malady, le Lavement luy a este done a 4 heur, et tout le monde la fort aprouve il a eu que deu, celle depuis six heur au mattin, et sans de tres grande douleur, j'espere en dieu, quil sera bien tost hors danger, et quil vous remerciera des soins qui vous avez eu

 pour luy

You are very tender my dear friend in never letting pass any occasion of giving me marks of your affection. the Physician judges like a man of sense and knowledge: in effect I find him such a man as you said. He⁺ is better now than he has been in all his illness. the purge was given him at four, & every one approves it much: he had but two those after six in the morning & without great pain. I hope in God He will be well soon, & that He will thank you for the care you have had
 of him
