9. Apr. 1720
(of Walpole - D. N. B.)

L'affaire dont je vous ayé parlé Ma Chere Clayton, son réglé Walpole ne veut pas absolument être dar la Tresurie, prenè garde a Notre amiè, l'auteur, qui sera trop agile, pour - Aislaby, mais, cela est plus son affaire,

Caroline

x. M<sup>r</sup> Clayton

The affair of which I spoke to you my dear Clayton is settled.
Walpole will not absolutely be in the Treasury. have a care as to our friend. I am afraid He will be too able for Aislaby but that is more his affair.
