Translation of a Letter from Sultan Nata Kasūma of Samanap in the island of Madūra, to His Majesty the King of Great Britain.

This sincere and friendly address, proceeding from a pure and candid mind, conveys greetings with many good wishes from Sultan Nata Kasūma who possesses the royal throne in the territory of Samanap. May the Almighty Lord of all worlds cause it to reach the illustrious presence of his most gracious Majesty King George, who rules supreme in the country of England and in all his conquered provinces, who is renowned from the Western to the Eastern hemisphere for victories obtained by sea and land; who through the benignity of his nature, governs his subjects with justice, and acts with kindness towards all the princes of these regions, as well as to all his dependants and allies, far and near. May his days be prolonged in the full enjoyment of health, with increase of power and every thing desireable, to the end of time. Moreover I transmit this address as a substitute for my personal appearance (for my own head) to be laid before his illustrious Majesty, informing him that his Commanding Officer named Harris, whom he sent to secure the peace and happiness, and to promote the welfare of this kingdom of Samanap, arrived opportunely, and the sultan, with all his army, received the favor with abundant gratitude. Furthermore his Highness, hoping pardon for making the request, prays that for the establishment of his own authority,

His

His Majesty will graciously condescend to favor him with a Writing under his hand and Seal, for the satisfaction of the mind of his Highness, which is impressed with the most sincere friendship for His Majesty, which can never be effaced from his own breast, and will descend to his posterity. And further, if he may find favor with his illustrious and gracious Majesty, he presumes to request that his Son Aria Mangku adi Ningrat may have a District allotted to him, not having at present any establishment. There is nothing which his Highness can present as a token of life and proof of friendship, ex: :cepting his Staff, the (gold) head of which is ornamented with precious stones, a Spoon, a Fork, and a Knife (all of gold). These he trusts will not be rejected as unsuitable to the occasion. Written in the city of Samarap, on Thursday the 15th. day of the month Ramadan, in the year of the hejra 1226 (3d. October 1811).
