

I. Concerning our Duty towards God

1. - Art thou warned by the sense of God's all-seeing Providence to take heed to thy ways?
2. - Dost thou pray daily for the protection of God & his blessing upon thy honest endeavours?
3. - Hast thou loved God before and above all things?
4. - Art thou not immoderately careful and anxious about outward things?
5. - Dost thou take care to admonish and reprove others for their sins, so far as thou mayest with Prudence and Decency?
6. - Have the promises and awakening threatenings therein provided with thee to govern thyself according to the holy and admirable precepts therein delivered?
7. - Dost thou reflect upon what thou hast heard at Church that thou mayest live according to it?
8. - Hast thou ^{always} accompanied thy prayers & praises with that seriousness, fervency, and Affection God requires?

II. Concerning our Duty towards our Neighbours

1. - Dost thou endeavour to restrain thy Neighbours from running into Sin by reasonable cautions and friendly admonitions?
2. - Reflect if thou hast not published thy Neighbour's faults, when neither the glory of God, nor the good of others made such a publication necessary?

III. Concerning our Duty towards ourselves

1. -- Hast thou laid to heart the shortness and uncertainty of this present life and daily improved it to the best advantage?
2. -- Hast thou exercised a daily care and watchfulness over thy deceitful heart, resisting its importunities and lusts.

IV. The Duty of a Child to a Parent

1. Hast thou dutifully concealed and excused their failings and infirmities?

V. The Duty of a Parent to a Child

VI. The Duty of Brethren

VII. The Duty of a Husband to his Wife

VIII.

IX. The Duty of a Master to a Servant

Hast thou been remiss in suffering them to neglect their Duty to God?