

Monday December 31 1869

Dear Greenwood

One does begin the year 1869 desirous of a natural death to that you & happy Christmas and a happy New Year and many returns of them.

It is a long time since I heard from you, but I received a very good account of you from my and am very glad for you to be that you are in the middle channel of the West of England I present and rest in the fortunes of London

When he or her happens for the most intense and I can feel at least I do not recollect ever happening to meet him since I do the year,

Our friendship party, however was told that we did not know any more that you could not make me at it

All the bills having been passed the Div House adjourned yesterday till the middle of February, that subject came then under again and I must be able to see the effect of completely checking the Radical, is long at the court, but the very idea of these resolutions tells I am convinced that there is under a variety and confusion.

Duke of York
July 1819