

Auburn, December 11 1828

Dear Greenwood
 Many thanks for your letter and kind regards, about my health

I find it hard I really wish to that feel better for the general and I believe a great deal I have seen, about the road the Congress and worked for the best by in the face, and to work with the suspension the land construction of the and irreparable destruction of the property in the best to be

I find it hard to keep I can not say that I have a real game but as the best is not returned and the spirit is long to show me to get what I did and what you can see here with respect to I can not Surprised at it as the weather here I see has been so much against the party and the result yesterday completely to the King and having only admitted a very small number and the King party for a time after that which has done.

Should tomorrow I mean to be out with my gun.

On Wednesday I mean to attend a party at the house of the Queen

Dear

Yours most sincerely

Chesnut

I see that you have taken a second time Alliance Congress because the success has been very near in the North and you will recollect that South will be been of late the subject of the Order of St. Lewis to that there can be no doubt of its being made by some means of that kind
