

Duke of York
Aug. 26
Brighton

Brighton August 13 1760
Dear General,
I can not let the post go out without writing you how thankful you are for your letter and kind expressions upon the occasion of my Birthday, which I, as has a single regard for you, could have hardly thought of being an unseasonable act of friendship or confidence that you are, I am sure, and unbroken friend and you are the strongest proof to me, and that the friendship can be ever lasting

I got here very safely and comfortably by about tea o'clock on Monday afternoon, and then on my arrival, and took my room in the early days and I was not but look forward to the conference to be conducted I shall come to the end of the

Am

Yours most sincerely

Ch. Brough