MS. A. 8. 2. under Burgess.

The King acknowledges with great pleasure, the Bishop of St. David's letter relative to his pious & useful scheme for the benefit of those, who are in future, to constitute the great Body of the Welsh Clergy. The King can not express, in terms, of sufficient commendation, this most laudable effort of the Bishop of St. David's. Whenever the Money is wanted, the King has order'd his Privy Council to transmit one thousand pounds in aid.
