Private.

The King sends his very kind regards to the Arch-Bishop of Canterbury.

The King at present believes, that a Presentation to the Charter House would be a matter of great convenience to Him, in about three or four Months, and if the Arch-Bishop, could obligingly man-age to find a nomination for the King at the time specified, the King will be happy to place one at the Disposal of 44

the Arch Bishop, on the ensuing Year, when the King's Journ of Remembrance, will come round.
