

to Lord Francis Comyngham

Sep. 26, 1823

Ten thousand thanks, my dear Frank, for your kind note, & for its enclosure, which has been a great comfort & relief to me. Pray come here, as soon as you can, for be sure you never can come too soon, or too often, or stay too long whenever you do come.
 I shall send you two Letters tomorrow to forward to Derby, & which you will do, upon receipt. Pray thank W. Lanning for his offer, of the American friendship, & which I desire to take a few days to consider about, before I return an answer. Believe me, dear Frank, Yours & Ledge. ever most affly J. G. Sept. 26th.
 1823.
