

Tuesday Night in answer to Monday Night. 67

Nov^r 25th 1779

My dearest dearest dearest Miranda my Sister my Friend,

I have just unpacked all my things and begun to be a little settled, my spirits are at present very low, & as my Cold is still very bad. I can not sufficiently express my thanks to my dearest Friend for her kind recommendations concerning my Cold, & have practiced ^{from you} & have found some little relief, ^{more especially} so I believe as they come from her.
Wednesday Night.

How very am I my ever dearest Miranda to perceive how impossible it will be for one to write up same quantity up. I was able to do at ~~the~~ from ye. allotment of my hours, you shall have ye. disposition of you ye. first opportunity I can get to write you down.

You shall however hear from me as frequently & as particularly about myself since you are so affectionate as to desire it particularly as you did at ~~the~~ let me hope also to meet with the same promise from you if it is not inconvenient. Ye days of calling are all ye. come to my ~~the~~ & to me & therefore I will beg of you to settle you with him yourself, as well as what time. My cold is a vast deal better to night, according to yr. desire I have seen Dr. ~~the~~ who says it is nothing but ye. peevish cold, he is to send me some Medicine tomorrow for me to take early in ye. Morning. pray inform he low yr. cold is wth. I heard from ~~the~~ was very bad, I beg you will be as circumstantial & cautious about yourself as I am about myself or be I mean Europe & Melpomene, & all ye. May 9 y^t. I shall call you a very gracious Lady, & shall address you in the beginning of all my notes my dear gracious Mi:

 A. A. A. my ever & earnest Miranda & believe me when I repeat, y^t. I greatly lament being obliged to make my notes shorter at least for ye present, why it is only for ye. present I will soon explain to you the I can not at present. Que le bon Dieu vous conserve pour affaire long temps le bonheur de

& de toujours affectueux

Salomon. toujours de même

P.S.

I hope you like Miss Kidney, read the exanount of her in y^r. last. A. A. A. toujours chère
