How happy sh^d. I have been to have heard y^t. my ever dearest Miranda's Cot was as well again as mine is.
Why did not my bosom Friend say all she wished even I perceive in my reproofs as not to admit of it. I am very happy to hear M. — has shew'd you so much attention. I shall like to see ye. better for it for ye. future & she shall see ye. beginning of either more civility ye first time I meet her. The accounts ye give me of dear M. — continue to be very satisfactory. & I am verily happy for y^e. excellent young woman's sake w^{ch}. they are so. I hope you found y^r.

Dinner well tell me how y^r. Dinner at L^ond^on went off the way y^r.
Company & how upon y^e. whole you were entertained. Continue to improve my dearest Miranda in Exoticisms there is no subject so interesting to me. Adieu you will have seen my excuse for so short a note as this pleaded in my note of last Night Ad. Ad. my ever dearest, dearest, dearest Miranda & believe me ever

Y^r. Palmon to your devotion

P.S. I have taken y^e. liberty of sending you for y^e. Coll^o w^{ch}. I hope you will find good. Ad. Ad.
& take y^e. liberty also of sending your thing's ~~to your~~ to your here if you may or you may not have seen it.
