Friday morning 9th past 9

Dearest dearest dearest Misenda, my Sister, my Friend

As nothing upon earth is so dear to me as yourself, nothing else make me happier than to hear of ^{you} Cald was so much better to allow you to go out. I have my Misenda a new subject to inform you of. I knew it myself but yesterday & wd have inform'd you of it immediately had you not absolutely forbid my ~~to~~ ^{to} call before Tomorrow - My Father began to tell me Yesterday Morning of these were some new arrangements going on in the establishments belonging to the family to wh^{ch} I had not yet been made privy - The whole transactions I cannot inform you of at present, but I will the first time we meet - I can only at present say of General D. Bude remains Governor to my Brother William whenever he returns together with young Majindes as his Receiver & of a new Gentleman a Mr. Bruce an English man is appointed Governor to Edward & of Mr. Hemphrey has got an appointment to him about Edward, who is also to serve as a sort of sub-governor the not superior to Mr. Hemphrey being brought at his recommendation, his name & his name is Farrell - I saw Mr. Bruce in my brother's apartment this afternoon, who seems really to be a very gentleman-like good sort of a man - My dear dearest Misenda & my better half, we go to the Play tomorrow how happy sh^d I be to see you there & agreeably entertained with me - How happy sh^d I be to possess Prince Lillie's Commit, who used to allow the Warrers, as Fobler have it to take what form & to trespass themselves in it within the space of a second, wherever they wish, as well as make them selves invisible. Then w^d I pass very leisurely on my way I had with my Friends & to her constant companions if she w^d allow me so to be. Adieu, Adieu, Adieu. God bless you & preserve you. I think that Lady — Letter speaks merely of things in general & she means nothing but what she literally mentions — I hop. you continue better in health & that you will ever continue to prosper & be happy. I believe you do not doubt in the constant prayers of your aff^r
