

The little Gentleman has certainly been ^{that} with one of Cupid's most powerful Darts - he offered an 100 guineas for a small lock of my Hair - the Divine Miss A's hair - this he could not get without an application to me - I laugh'd at his folly & replied, upon condition he would have his Hair, of w^{ch} he is conceitedly proud, cut off, & wear a little + ~~brown~~ Bob wig - he might apply to my Maid for the Combs of my Hair - + then he must wear it in full dress Clothes

Does this refer to a letter to me dated
Nov. 18

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged paper]