

I have told you repeatedly that I never would accept presents of any kind from you - therefore I have a right to be affronted that you contrived the I should command me to accept the one you gave me the other right <sup>the 1st was but a trifle</sup> - My proud heart will not submit to these sort of things therefore you put me to an expense rather inconvenient to my finances, as I will never accept any thing from you without returning something of equal value - then fare a truce.

I am no
vile mercenary
servile friend,
I want nothing from you but truth & sincerity & that you should
in every action

prove yourself worthy of the distinguished situation Providence has thought fit to place you in Adieu I am truly your Friend & Sister
