Charle. was only Personal to Himself lyz for ^{all} none of His other Possessions remained independent, ~~became~~ ~~became~~ ~~incorporated~~ ~~by~~ the ^{Empire} Franks. This Title was properly speaking a renewal of the ^{Western} Eastern Empire in Italy which ever since the year 406

~~Charle.~~ He conquered the Saxons but lyo under particular Conditions, the Chief of which was, not to be led upon as ~~if~~ one & the same with the Franks, but as a separate people enjoying the same privileges with the others & governed by one Sovereign. This is also look upon as the ^{original} Foundation of the distinction of Saxon Laws, as well as those of the prevailing upon the Rhine. One of the ~~great~~ Chief Kings He employd to conquer the Saxons was forcing them to become Christians.
He build a Church a Paderborn for the encouragement of Christianity & as He became more powerfull He founded the Bishopricks of Osnabourgh

His last attack was against the Northern people who became very troublesome both by Sea & by Land & unforeseen change in the Sucefsion of those Kingdoms brought it soon to a peace. & the River Eider between Holstein & Schleswig was first upon as the ^{boundary} ~~frontier~~ between their differing possessions.

One of the greatest ^{projects} ~~effects~~ of His superior ^{as well} ~~understanding~~ ^{understanding} as love for His people is The Book of Laws known under the name of Capitularies composed by Himself, still subsisting.
He also was also a great encourager of all Arts & Sciences which He made to flourish ^{all over} ~~every where~~ His vast Empire & likewise a strong support ^{of} ~~for~~ ^{resided in} ~~of~~ ^{of} His Court.
