

Albany
July 26th 1826.

Dear Sir,

I will endeavor this time next to answer yours of 26th June and I had ^{the} ^{the} ^{the} ^{the} I am glad Mr. Dak is returned and altogether a pleasure of the leave you gave to Powell. And Powell I am assured will never see his Statutes again. The crops of hay must be light but I trust they will be con-
 -cent. In the East-Point the crops may be abundant, but in the West-Point I am sure they are hardly worth preserving. In the South they must be taken es-pecial care of. I understood the business with Lady Watson at the mere at Newby and I hope for his own sake Augustus will be steady with Mr. James then.

Tell Collyer at the moment the Parley is off West Lane's Wood to have the classes there completed. He must not forget to make the Parish Overseers repair the circular drain that runs in to the Park at the Shepherd's head stile.

I am afraid there will not be time for such a visit must be the more so for having to see them. I hope in a few days to have got up my strength to be then able to come to you. For the present advice and wear be kind to me.

Yours sincerely

W. Pitt Rivers
