

What I have written, but not having my hands, had nothing else to fill my paper with

My dear brother, the paper was written by the King's hand & the King's seal & has a little of his name, which is not at all necessary.

indeed, just now I have no vacancy for him to you. I am quite safe in that quarter & thank heaven. Still you saw my praisable Indifference in every other.
When dear God, who have one, dear
