Monday
August 20th 1818

Dear Daniell,

I am to acknowledge yours of 20th instant and have already my own direction respecting the Hundred Pounds. I rejoice in the happy news: I did expect to have heard from you of this. I have nothing but an O. letter of 11th. Hoping my daughters are comfortably settled in the school and by your care and that every thing will go on as usual as possible with them and Mr. Harper.

As Linen is very cheap and good here & since Mr. Oakton and a list of what you require and quality of the same may be wanted I will send it over directed by Mr. Harper (the printer) to you

Mr. Bury and Mr. Oak will make it up: tell Carter to send me a list of the harvest of last year as he has done of this:

The paper before my residence has not been sent in the course of another month. I shall be a better judge: the Dutchess is very well and her
-my very particular: she desires her kind remem-brance to you: I go next Monday on my tour to the West and shall not be able to write again until my return: adieu and ever believe me,

Dear Sir,

Yours very truly

John Bull
