

L: 17

Honour.
Larr: 29: 10/18.

Dear Daniell,

Your L: 17 reached me this day before yesterday and I returned the enclosed signed as usual: I also send a letter of answer for you to read and show which you will give to (notes: it is my ideas on the Farm for the next season and some questions to him.

I cannot have any objection to employing any High-person on my estate provided the horses are good and the drivers careful and sober: the price of Shillington is too high for me.

I approve of the success and of the management of Cates in every respect: the creditors must and will submit to some delay on account of my poor sent and peculiar situation: tell Charles to send me the most minute account of every Farm Bill up to Christmas 1818: I am afraid the house will lose the lot of your mind: I have no fear either of the cow or the sheep:

I have not been and be have arrangements of that nature will take place before the end of this sesion of Parliament as to make my situation in England what it may be to be: in the mean time the Dutchess has entered the Parliament with her week of her pregnancy and is well and hope giving on most favorably: a dear and very believe me,

Y<sup>r</sup> Dear Daniel,
 Yours sincerely
 J. H. Williamson
