Dear Daniell,

My annual attack has prevented ed tell me my acknowledg^{ing} Jas: Dand's various enclosures which I return signed with Hapel's letter to Elphinstone whom I never saw: if Mr: Hardwick had I think I could drive the post near Hampton with the -ing the trunk. Under the Dear Parents I find but I must have my doubts till the trial has been made: I am glad the former is arrived and hope the grey horse will not suffer and I will get quite well.
 Holman must understand he has not the Upper Lodge for a prospect and is to be sent to the di-

GE
-acted: you must recollect Thollman is held at Bushy isentire Landing your direction: the books and mine by this time you must have: the other books have left Pruninger and will be sent over in Sep-tember January and April by the quarterly papers
-per from Hanover: I get the approval of the
-my Deb: advice and ever believe me,

Yours sincerely
