my dear Daniel

I shall not want a Boy as yet for the Stables nor till I return to Rudy about the middle of next month and most likely not there as Remington will do as well until my Father has means to increase his establishment—

What does the Man charge for the footman livery, send it to me, so much the suit, 10 much the Great Coat & 10 much the jacket and I will return you a Draft for the same immediately.

Pray you have got the same pens & stationery 2c 2c, Lamb, 2 covers for desks, 2 pily moulds, Pray set about the jacket & the things I orderd so that I may come in at a four day notice as is justly thought and likely - send me the Bills of them all - I hear the Dutchess was greatly pleased at the House you will receive a little lock in a few days in a gilt case with a glass - I hope you have put up the glasses over the lamps - There will be also some Damask Table Cloths & Napkins ~~come~~ down - I hope you are getting the ale - Tell me what you have ~~received~~ ^{received} of late - The Turkey suit of a footman ought not to cost so much as that of a Coachman - Tell your to look out where he can order ~~me~~ ^{we} in some Corn & Hay ~~cut~~ ^{we} I shall ^{have} raise ^{more} more Horses to feed ~~them~~ ^{my} ~~my~~ ^{father} will feed for me, & I will caution him to get it before hand when to ~~get it~~ - Ask him how much oats a more require for a year, ~~whether~~ how many such - In March I shall order down more bottles as I will have a good deal of the all bottled - Put the little clock and stop on the chimney in the drawing room when it comes down - You must also make the servant out of livery every afternoon the day or two before sabbath - I shall order down the plate about you had better keep as busy till the day we arrive

If the Damascus linen turned down requires mending have it done

Ever yours
