

[1811]

January 10th

My Dear Sir

I need not thank you for your kindness; you did not mention interest but that must have been omitted through my neglect in what further I owe in your debt - when I have an opportunity to send you your money - The last week has been sad indeed - but I hope you will soon come to find me your Affec<sup>t</sup>

Friend
J. J.

Since you heard that My is going to leave me; do not grieve as you are not -

