

Dec. 1802

My Dear Charles
 The Queen commands me to return you Sir Pitt's letter - she wishes to see Benthams, and if Taylor can perform well she would give her being him to Harrison as for the Jew - she says she cannot well give the credit, but she thinks Mr Nicolson would procure it - for at present she fears give would be disapproved of if she sent it without leave, and she wishes the performance to be a surprise and to be ready for New Years Day
