My dear Mr. Colbrook

I cannot say how delighted I am at the very beautiful card

you have just been

so kind to send me

I quite long for an opportunity to thank you personally but

in the mean time

must employ me to do

so for me - This tea

is a most beautiful

piece of Chabert. I have a most pure view

I am in your favour
that I should be made I do not think
but that the gift
of a pin is a trifling acceptance. I think
what you are doing
you had to be done
but I must be under
of all things & I have not to his opinion. I cannot indeed be
to let you be the
of Myself & allow you

to have long with you and I hope to be
to doing it with disturbance. The
of being your

difficult to you I think you will find it difficult to read. Many thanks for your kind enquiries I have been thinking of writing to you but I have been so busy that I have not had time to do so today. adieu

Yours ever
