Orders

- 1st When the ship is in harbour in sight of a Flag or in a Foreign Port. One Lieutenant to be constantly onboard
- 2nd The Officer of the Watch is to sign the Log before he is relieved, he is also to mark down all alterations of Sail and what Lee-way the ship makes.
- 3<sup>d</sup> The ship is never to be left without the Surgeon or one of his mates onboard
- 4th One of the Marine Officers to be constantly onboard in sight of a Flag or in a Foreign Port.
- 5th The Boatswain at no time to be left Commanding Officer.
- 6th No Officer or other person to be 24 hours absent from his duty without any leave for that purpose, but other limited leave may be granted at the discretion of the commanding Officer.

7.<sup>n</sup> No boat to be absent from the ship or in the water after Nine O'clock at night the longboat excepted which may be moored astern if the weather permits but not to go from the ship after that time except upon His Majestys service.

8.<sup>n</sup> The Officer who has the Night Watch is frequently to Cause the ship to be Visited between decks in the Orlop Deck & Lock pits to see that there is no disorder in the ship or any one presume to Light a candle after the general Order has been given to put them out, and upon observing such irregularity he is to report it to the commanding Officer in the morning.

9.<sup>n</sup> As too frequent accidents have happened from Officers Reading in Bed by candle Light or leaving candles burning in their Cabins (which from the negligence of their servants has been productive of the most fatal consequences) the more effectually to prevent whereof It is my positive Order that no officer or other person do Read in 3.

Bed by candle Light, or entrust a light in his Cabin but when he himself or some other carefull person is present.

th
10. No Spiritous Liquors are to be drawn off in Cabins in the Hold or between Decks, nor in any place but upon the upper Deck and in Day Light.

x th 11. It is recommended to the Officers when working the ship in moderate Weather to work her by the Pipe for which purpose it will be requisite to place a Boatswains mate on the gangway.

th
12. The Provisions to be Issued out from seven untill nine oflock in the morning and from Five untill seven in the evening after each time the Purser is to keep the Key of the steward Room in his Cabin.

th
13. No person to sleep or Mess in the Steward Room

x th
14. The Key of the steward Room to be kept in the First Lieutenant or Commanding Officers Cabin.

4, <sup>u</sup>
15. Every Officer going on board the Commanding Officers ship to answer signals is to carry the Orderly Book in his Pocket.

16. <sup>u</sup> The ships Company to be clean and ready to attend their Muster every Sunday by ten of clock. It is recommended to the Officers particularly to shew an example on that day.

17. <sup>u</sup> The ships Company's necessaries to be mustered the first Monday of every month

18. <sup>u</sup> All Orders respecting the Marines to be given by the Lieutenants to the Commanding Marine Officer.

19. <sup>u</sup> The Officers are to use every means in their power to prevent that but too common and absurd practice of the Seamen making a noise on every occasion when the duty of the ship is carrying on, by Hurraing Hallooing &c. when Boats are hoisting in or out, working at the Capstern hoisting the sails &c. they are to be acquainted that no such custom will be

5 be allowed, and if they dare to persist, in it they will be severely punished:
The Captains of the Tops are strictly charged not to suffer any person to speak when duty is carrying on aloft, but whatever is wanted they are to communicate themselves to the Officers

th20 No Seaman or Marine or other person in the ship is to be struck or otherways ill used on any pretence whatsoever by any Officer or Gentleman but in case of neglect of duty or impertinence Complaint is to be made to the Captain or in his absence to the Commanding Officer, in order that he or they so offending may be Confined.

th21 The Boatswains Gunners & Carpenters Keys to be returned to the Commanding Officer every night when in port, but to the Officer of the Watch at sea & the Warrant Officers are to take notice that should any spiritous Liquors be found in their respective Store Rooms, they will be suspended immediately, and they are to observe that they are answerable for

6. their Yeomans Conduct on this occasion

22. When the Hammocks are not ordered upon Deck the men are to Trau them up Close, and when the Boats Crews are absent from the ship the man whose Hammocks hangs immediately on the outside of them is to Trau them up and the same if they are ordered up or down observing to lash them up carefully as he will be made accountable for any thing lost out of them.

23. As it is but the too frequent practice on board His Majesty's ships to make use of that horrid Expression Buggit so disgracefull to a British seaman: If any person shall be heard using this expression they may be assured they will be severely punished.

24. No Officer or Petty Officer to go upon duty without his Uniforms on nor to appear upon the Quarter Deck in any other Coloured Clotths but Blue; and they will recommend themselves by always wearing Uniform Coats or Jackets.

25 When the Decks are washing it is expected that every person on Deck not only those who are employed handling Water &c. but the Gunners, Carpenters & others who may be employed about the Guns Tarpawlings, Gratings &c. do put off their shoes and stockings and put them in a dry place untill the Decks are dry; And the Petty Officers are strictly charged to see this Order so conducive to the health & warmth of the people duly executed.

26. The people never to be interrupted at their meals but on the most pressing occasions, and the Decks are to be Clean Sweeped after every meal.

27. The Guns to be Run in Fore & aft before Decks washing and to continue so untill the water ways are dry.

28. Nothing is to be hung up in the Rigging from the Mainmast aft, or exposed so as to be seen from without board, or Linen or floaths to be hung up forward in any form but upon lines.

29th The men not to be less than four in a mess.

30th When the ship's company's necessaries are mustered it is expected that the Officers do not only see that the men have their proper quantity, and report the deficiencies but that all their necessaries are kept Clean and wholesome; and the men sent on shore sick are to be informed that if any of their Bedding & floaths are missing upon their return without satisfactory account is brought from the Surgeon or Agent of the Hospital they will be severely punished. —

31st As it is my wish to grant unto every man that behaves well every reasonable indulgence: It is expected that men going on shore on leave bring no disgrace on themselves or the ship by Drunkenness or riotous Behaviour, but that they carry themselves soberly & respectfully to every Officer they meet.

9.
32 The strictest Silence to be observed whenever the Men are at their Quarters and the Officers are particularly Order'd to prevent any Noise or Confusion: The Captains of the Guns are not to suffer more than two round-shot or one Round and one grape shot in any of the Guns and to be careful to worm and sponge the Guns well.

The greatest attention to be paid to pointing the Guns well in action as it is not so necessary to fire often as to fire well.

When the men are at Quarters those of the Starboard Watch to stand drawn up before the Guns and those of the Larboard Watch abaft, upon a Ruffle of the Drum each Watch to take their own side of the Deck, the Captains of the Starboard side is to give the word of Command, and on the Larboard side the Captains of the Larboard side.

+ No Boys to carry Powder in time of action but to attend with swabs to clean up any that may have been scattered by accident.

33 The Sentinels to Challenge all Boats coming to or passing near the Ship in the night, and not to permit any to come onboard nor any person to enter or go from the ship after Sun set or before Sun rise without leave first obtained from the Officer of the Watch. they are not to suffer any noise to be made on their Posts and in Case of any misdemeanour or neglect of duty they are to be regularly relieved before any Punishment is inflicted on them.

34. The Marines not to be forced aloft nor are they on the other hand to be restrained from rendering themselves expert in Seamans duty agreeable to the Instructions.

35. No person is to appropriate to his own use Cloaths of what kind soever (negligently left about the Decks) under pretence of not being able to find an Owner, but he is to bring such Cloathing to the Officer of the Watch for his direction in the disposal thereof, and if it is discovered to be in his possession for any other purpose

11,
it will be deemed a Theft and punished accordingly.

36th When Boats are sent upon service the Officer of whatever Rank he be is to stay and attend punctually the Duty & be carefull to keep the men together.

37th The people to be mustered at their Quarters every night at sunsett.

38th The people to be Exercised at Great Guns every day when the weather permits, between the hours of Eleven & Twelve O'clock founoon.

+39th When all hands are called to Tack Ship or to work into a harbour the Master only is to work the ship, and the Lieutenants are to take the following Stations: If I am not on Deck the First Lieutenant to be on the Quarter Deck, or otherways on the Gangways or Main Deck, the Second Lieutenant always on the Gangways or Main Deck, & the Third & Fourth Lieut.

12,
Lieutenants on the Fore Castle.

+ If any person in the ship shall commit any offence such misdemeanour to be immediately made known to me; but while I am onboard no Officer is to confine an offender without my approbation.

No person or boat to be permitted to go from the ship without my Consent.

The Officer of the morning Watch is always to cause the Quarter Master to carry the Lanthorns down to the Steward Room door every morning at Daylight.

The Officer of the Watch is to order the Decks to be Clean swept every day before Piping to Dinner or Beating to Quarters in the Evening which is always to be done at Sun-set when every Officer is to attend his respective station and report to the First Lieutenant who is afterwards to report to me any person that may be absent from their Quarters so that proper Punishments may be inflicted.

The Master is never to have Charge of the Watch except by my Approbation.

All Boats to be hoisted in at Sunsett & no Boat is to be sent from the Ship after that time except on His Majesty's service.

No Boat to be sent from the Ship at meal times unless on his Majesty's service.

No person to Sleep out of the Ship except by my Consent.

The Officer of the Watch is never to carry Sail so as to endanger the Masts and always to have a Midshipman on the Fore Castle and Longgangway on the look out during the night. —

The Master,

He is to be very carefull to have both Ties and Anchor clear when near the Land or when coming to an Anchor.
He is not to suffer any erasement or addition in his Log Book and is to bring the same every day to the Captain or Commanding Officer for his inspection.

When coming to an Anchor he is to consider himself as Pilot of the ship and give the Officers proper time for taking in the sails.

He is to see that there is no deficiency of of Nippers Stoppers &c. and to attend staying the Masts & setting up the Rigging and to take care that the Wedges of the Masts are knocked up before he attempts that duty.

He is to be very exact in the expediture of Water and not suffer any Waste thereof and when the Ship is in Port to lose no time in having this article

Complete, that she may be ready for sea at the shortest notice; and he is not to omit taking the ships Draught of water previous to her sailing.

To be particularly carefull to keep the hawse Clear and the sheet anchor & cable always ready for running & the ship constantly ready to unmoor at the shortest notice.

The Hold to be kept at all times ready for receiving the provisions & necessary Supplies of Beer and water so that the whole may be kept Complete.

To see a proper quantity of water let into the ship from time to time to keep her sweet.

Both in port and at sea. Water sufficient for the days expence to be got up in the morning and the Empty farks struck down that the Decks & Guns may at no time be lumbered with them.

To report regularly the consumption of Beer & other provisions that the 21, deficiencies may be supplied: and to know always the Condition of the Cables and other stores that require Survey and inspection.

The Officers Store-Rooms to be from time to time inspected to see that all the Stores are stowed in such manner as to receive no damage; and that they are arranged so as to be ready when called for at a moments warning when the ship is at sea & appearance of action to have Beer & Water distributed on the Decks.

When all hands are called either to Tack ship or to work into Harbour, you are to be on the Quarter Deck and always put the ship about yourself.

24 Mates & Midshipmen

As nothing distinguishes the Officer and Gentleman so much as an alert, & prompt Obedience to all Commands, & strict attention to duty. It is expected that the Gentlemen who walk the Quarter Deck endeavour to recommend themselves to their Officers Love & Esteem by their diligence and activity and by anticipating their Commands shew themselves an honor to the Navy & a credit to the ship they serve in.

The following regulations to be strictly observed.

1. No officer to be absent from his duty 24 hours without express leave for that purpose. The Mates & Midshipmen never to appear upon the Quarter Deck without their uniforms on, and when at sea it is recommended to wear Blue Uniform Jackets, Cocked Hats or Caps & long white Trowsers made alike as they will there by

26th by be enabled to go upon duty clean and in an Officer like manner. And they are strictly charged to set an Example of cleanliness and Decour to the Inferior Officers and men as the force of Example is strong and prevalent. And it is recom-mended unto them to have their Uniforms on when the ship is working into Port.

2nd As it is but the too frequent practice for the Officers of the Watch to leave the Deck in harbour on any trifling occasion such gross violation of the charge entrusted to them will be attended with the most marked Disgrace & Punishment.

3rd When the ship is in Port the Mid--shipman of the Watch is to be ready in an instant to go upon duty, he is therefore to bring his Hanger &c. upon the Quarter Deck when he relieves it.

4th In Harbour two thirds of the Mates and Midshipmen to be on board. —

21/ 5th. When any Midshipmen are sent upon duty in boats they are to expedite it as much as possible, keeping them from stragling or getting Liqueor as they will be made accountable for any fault committed.

6th. As nothing marks the Discipline of a ship so much as a Diligent attention to signals the Midshipmen are to keep the strictest look out for any & inform the Officer immediately.

7th. They are to discourage all noise when the duty is carrying on see the Officers Orders put into Execution without a Repe-
-tion & the Progs put into the mens hands

8th. They are to keep a Muster Roll of the Slops of their Subdivisions and on Sundays to see the men of their respective Divisions Clean and ready to attend Mustering for that purpose; And on Tuesdays & Fridays will be the days allotted for washing their Linen which is to be taken down out of the Shrouds each

28. of those days before Sunsett and on Mondays they are to muster their men & report to the Officers of their Subdivisions any deficiency or Unclean-lines of their necessaries.

9. When the Decks are washing they are to make the men pull off their shoes & Stockings & put them in a dry place; this rule is particularly to be enforced as it is so conducive to the health and Comfort of the people: When the between Decks is washing the Laway Matts to be rolled up until they are dry.

10. The Mate of the night watch is to go round every half hour to see that no Lights are burning or improper noise made.

11. When all hands are turned up every Officer to repair to his Station & keep the men silent and attentive.

12. When handing or Reefing the Officer is to take the station where he can best

29. see the duty carried on well: And when all hands are up for the pouring of Sails Striking Yards & Topmasts, getting in or out of Boats &c. it is expected that all the Mates & Midshipmen attend on these occasions.

<sup>16</sup> 13. As the Ships Company are beat to Quarters always before Sunsett; They are to report to the Commanding Officer any deficiency of men or any thing else wanting to the Guns.

<sup>17</sup> 14. The Mate of the Watch is always to see the Shipsoppers Clean before the mens meat is put in: and the Midshipmen of the subdivisions are to attend on the piping to Dinner, to see that their Bowls and Platters are Clean.

<sup>18</sup> 15. The Mate will always be looked upon as accountable for the Cleanlines of his Birth; and neither he nor the Midshipmen are to be allowed more than one chest which is to be kept in their proper Births; and when the ship is in Port the Mates are to see that the Young Gentlemen keep a strict watch their Hammocks got up with the ships and that they appear clean when on their duty on the Quarter Deck

16th The Mates and Midshipmen are strictly enjoined not to beat any of the men but when they are remiss in their duty Complaint is to be made to the commanding Officer for their being punished; As the Mates will be chargeable for the watch when the Ship is moored, they are to sign their names to the Log before they are relieved.

17th Both Mates and Midshipmen are to keep watch and Quarter Bills of the Ships Company & a Hammock Book with the numbers of the mens hammocks, 18th At the Punishment of any of the Ships Company every Officer is to attend wearing his sword or Hangut.

3<sup>d</sup> The Marines are not to be forc'd aloft nor are they on the other hand to be discourag'd from rendering themselves expert in searuns duty agreeable to the Instructions

4th As no person is allowed to be struck and as there are too often frivolous Complaints made by the Sergeants &c. of the midshipmens ill usage to the marines, should this happen the Officer will take notice that he will be made keep watch to see the men do their duty properly.

34<sup>u</sup>
5th The Marines are to be suppressed in that too frequent and absurd custom of slurraing at the capstern and the Officers are to encourage their keeping a regular step as it accelerates that duty and establishes regularity which will do them credit.

6th When a Guard of any kind is mounted in harbour it is expected that the men appear with that exactness of Dress &c. which they do on shore at Parade, any neglect will be severely punished.

7th All Orders respecting the Marines is to be given by the Lieutenants to the Commanding Marine Officer.

Boatswain

He is to be very carefull of his Stores and not expend them improperly, nor Issue them to any person without my leave; and to deliver the Key of his Store Room to the commanding Officer every evening at 8 o'clock in Port. & to the Officer of the Watch at sea

Neither he nor his Yeoman are on any account to go into the Store Room without a Midshipman of the Watch & the handle in a lanthorn; It is expected that he always keep the Yards square & the ropes hauled tight. — The Forecastle being particularly under his Charge he must always attend to its being kept Clean and not suffer any of the ships Company to throw Dirt from it or any place but out of the Head. — In working the ship he is to see that the Orders given from the Quarter Deck be put into execution without noise, nor him nor his mates to be hallooing but to just, put the ropes into the mens hands, and only make use of their Pipes;— Nor are they to beat the people but if any of the Ships Company deserve punishment, he is to report them to the commanding Officer in order to their being brought to the gangway, he is to prevent the Ships Company from Piping on the Decks, Emptying Pots &c, and to be very Carefull that the ship is never in want of Pints, Ropebands, Garkets, Sennett &c. and on no account to suffer spiritous liquors of any sort to be lodg'd in his Stowroom, and to be very Carefull that his Yoman nor no other person permitt it as he will be responsible for their conduct in this respect and if you disobay or neglect any of thesesaid Orders You will be put under an arrest and brought to a Court Martial.

The Boatswain is to beat all falls from six oflock in the morning untill nine oflock at night during this summer;

and in the winter which commences the 25th September and ends the 25th March from day light in the morning untill gun firing or 10 o'clock at night.

He is always after the hands are turned out in the morning to have a Boat to row round the ship to see the Yards and square the sails well furlid and all the Ropes hauled tight before any thing else is begun even before Decks washing

Summary

The summary being an official instruction a great deal of heat is spent in trying to take the very nature of the subject - It is admitted, however, to be the first step towards the end that may be proposed in the execution of them and accordingly that the first object upon which the author lays his main stress is the importance of the subject - It is not a matter of course that we should be able to see the benefit of them to present a clear & concise summary of the facts - In case of coming to them we are to be advised to be very careful not to be misled by the various the facts are not new and they are often repeated - For as always of any particular attention that we should be to go into the subject with a fair & impartial view and that the benefit that may be derived from that we are here to see

Gunner.

The Gunner being an Officer in whom a great deal of Trust is reposed he ought to be very attentive to his duty. — He is always at sunsett to see the Guns bored down and that they are fit for service, no deficiency of Wads and always sufficient Matches lighted upon Deck. And never less then Twenty five rounds of Powder filled, he is at least once a fortnight to shift the Barrels of Powder to prevent is Clogging & Damaging in the farks. — In case of coming to action you are stationed in the Magazine, you are to be attentive to reduce the Powder in the Cartridges and never send them up but in their proper boxes: — You are always to pay particular attention that no person whatever is to go into the Magazine without first taking out their Buckles & all the Knives they may have in their Pockets And that you nor your Yeoman are 44, ever to go into your Stow Room or Magazine without being attended by a Midshipman of the Watch and the Landle put into a Lanthorn to prevent accidents.

You are wholly accountable for any spirit-terous Liguors lodged in your stowroom which is never to be suffered the Key of which and of the Magazine are to be de-livered to the Commanding Officer at Port every evening when in Port & to the officer of the Watch at Sea.

You are during the Summer to be at all falls from six o'clock in the morning untill nine o'clock and in the Winter which commences the 25th September and ends the 25th of March from day light in the morning untill Gun firing or 8 o'clock in the evening.

He is to see that his Crew wash the Guns & Carriages very Clean every morning when the Decks are washed and that they remove the Shot from the Shot-Lockers, which are always to be very well dried before the Shot is put in again. —

The Carpenter,

He is to be very exact in the Expenditure of the stores committed to his Charge & to pay great attention whenever the Masts are staying to see that the Wedges thereof are knocked up before that duty is performed. He is not to Issue any Stores without the Captains leave, and to deliver the Key of his Flour room to the Commanding Officer every evening at 8 o'clock when in Port and to the Officer of the Watch at Sea. And that neither he nor his Yeoman are to go into his flour room without being attended by a Midshipman of the Watch and the Candle put into a Lanthorn and no Spirituous liquors whatever is to be suffered in either Flour Room or Pitch Room and he is to be accountable for the conduct of his Yeoman in this respect; — During the summer he is to be at all calls from six o'clock in

in the morning untill nine o'clock at night and in the Winter which Commences the 25th September & ends the 25th March from day light in the morning untill Gun firing or 8 o'clock at night.

He is to be very attentive that his crew wash the gratings clean always when the Decks are washed and that they keep every thing belonging to them in their respective places.
