Windsor Castle,
Thursday.

My dear Lady Eliza

I am truly
happy to find by your kind letter of yesterday that you are recovered
from your Malady
and feel benefitted
by the change of Air.
I was very much worried all the time

you were ill, for I know what this illness is, tho' I never have had it myself. I was very fortunate that some of your children caught it from you
and that you recovered
so soon from it,
pursues a serious
business. - I shall be very glad to see you soon again, but

I must beg you not to expose yourself too
soon to the fatigue
wraps of watching
old at the next dressing room, which would not be prudent.
No! I long to have
you with me again.
I cannot allow you to expose yourself for my sake
and therefore thank

it better you should visit first the next
drawing room, if your Physician should disapprove of your
going to the West.

Perhaps is equally
rejoiced to know your recovery & we both
join in best wishes towards you. God bless you, my dear Lady Ely. Ever most sincerely
yours
Charlotte
