My Dear Brother

I would have answered you before but I waited for a proper opportunity to send my letter. I return you a thousand thanks for your letter and your very elegant present with which I was very agreeably surprised.

I hope that you do not really think that there is even a possibility of your being forgot at home, for indeed if you have the smallest suspicion of it, you do us all very great injustice, for you are generally spoke of several times in the course of the Day, and if that even was not the case, I hope that you would not suspect me my dear William of being capable to forget you.

I have been twice this Year to the Opera and was very much amused.

Augusta sends her love to you and desired me to tell you that the Ring that you received of Mamma's Hair was new and that she hopes that you will like it if possible better when you hear that she wore it.

I wish that I could have seen you skate, I am sure that before the end of the Winter you will be able to do it very well.

All my Brothers and Sisters send their love to you.

Octavine is very much improved since you have seen him by his change of dress.

My Dearest Brother
I am

Your ever affectionate Sister
