

Brighton.

March 13: 1816.

Dear Mayo,

I have this morning received Yours of 7th inst. and am glad you are finally settled in our Affairs. I have not of any particular business that will require your attendance in Parliament till after the 1st of Apr: but the sooner after that you take your seat the better.
on the receipt of your last letter respecting your nephew I sent it the same day to the Duke of York but have not yet heard from my brother.

The Duke has had a most successful long fit of the great-pox, which he is at length recovering he is now anxious to get to town to hasten the nuptials.

My best wishes and compliments attend Lady!
Pray and ever believe me,

Yours sincerely

William
