My Dear Genl,

In answer to your Genl.
-ship's letter of 25th Dec: from Paris I shall ever be much and happy to share my regard to you & for those connected with your Genlship. You and I must do what we can for your brother with our few English when he gets to Ireland.

I understand the Princess Anne with your Genl-
-ship to be at Portsmouth & departs in January and I shall be anxious to see your Genlship as the late will the Countess when you reach London where I probably you will find me.

I see by the papers Paris has been started.
I am sure the King of France never forgets -but your Lordship. The attention of your and Lady Anne will give measure of the -sing. I am easily convinced there are plenty of your countrymen at Paris.

I have steadily endeavored to do my duty and I must say I have met with many en-couragements. I am sure I have the good wishes of your Lordship and the two sisters to whom I lay to be particularly remembered.

The Duchess is delighted at the thought of again tickling the nose of my and my sweetest still alike.

Believe me ever
Dear Madam

Yours truly

J. O.
