Several of the simple Contract Vouchers of His late Royal Highness have stated before Mr. Master been stated that these demands have been examined and admitted and some allowed Interest, but Mr. Stephenson will be pleased to Notice such as have so applied.

In answer to the above Statements, I have only to say, I do not recollect that in any one Instance I ever allowed Interest upon the Bills delivered to me; several Applications have at different times been made for an allowance of Interest upon these Debts; to which my answer has generally been;
"first obtain payment of the Principal; & it will then be time enough to talk about the Interest."

Sir/ I am most reluctant to intrude on you, but an application to me this day, and one which I cannot refuse, must plead my excuse. ever since I have been in communication with Mr Coulthurst I have paid the most unremitting attention to his Instructions, and have given to the very Important business I have undertaken my whole Time and attention, nor have I been sparing in any way to make sure work of the great object I have had in view, namely to save the Estate of his late Royal Highness the Duke of York more than Twenty Four thousand Pounds I have all along explained to Mr Coulthurst that I am by no means a Rich Man, I have nevertheless spared no Expence to confirm my Evidence, and have incurred considerable Expence in Travelling, as well as in other ways that I might be fully prepared to meet the Holders of the Bonds before the Master and this in obedience to the Confidential Orders of Mr Coulthurst.

having thus explained myself. The Object of my <sup>your</sup> address, is that I am extremely short of Cash, at this moment, and as you will perceive by the Enclosed Note to me, from the Daughter of a most material Evidence which is to rebut the Claim of many Thousands, I therefore throw myself on your attention to furnish me with such a temporary advance, as you may think the urgency of the Case may require; as I repeat here, that the very advanced age (78) of the person on whose Evidence is material to my case, that it requires me to keep a watchfull and attentive Eye in every way to the wishes, and wants of the parties, I have to deal with. as Mr Coulthrust will hand this to you, he will fully explain how you can accomplish the wishes of Sir

Gentlemen

On application, on behalf of the Executor of the late M<sup>r</sup>. W<sup>m</sup>. Nicholson, to M<sup>r</sup>. John Humphreys the writer of the annexed Letter I have been referred by him to you for information on the subject of its contents.

M<sup>r</sup>. W<sup>m</sup>. Nicholson was formerly Gardener to the late Duke of York and was pensioned off by his Royal Highness at £40 per Annum. He received this Pension up to Christmas 1816. At Christmas 1821 there was an arrear of five years due, and the amount £200 was included in the Schedule in the Trust Deed mentioned in the annexed Letter. In 1824 M<sup>r</sup>. Nicholson died without having received any portion of the said £200 or of the amount of Pension accumulated from 1821 to the day of his death. I beg leave therefore to request that you will have the goodness to inform me whether the produce of the property mentioned in the Trust Deed has proved sufficient to pay the Scheduled Debts in full; if not to what extent; whether the Executor of the above property should be insufficient to satisfy the scheduled claims in full, whether there be any fund for the payment of the balance, and also the accumulation of Pension from December 1821 to the time of the death of Mr. Nicholson in 1824.

Sir

I am directed by the Earl of Lauderdale & Col.<sup>l</sup> Stephenson to inform you, that His Royal Highness the Duke of York has assigned to them, All his Goods, Growing Crops, & other personal Effects, at Oatlands, for payment of certain Scheduled Creditors, amounting to £812. 5<sup>00</sup> after payment of Expenses and a prior charge, which may amount to about £200, more or less. -

Your name is in the Schedule to a Debt, amounting to £200, and the Deed directs, that those debts, in the Schedule, which do not amount to £50, each, shall, in the first place, be paid in full, and the residue divided between the remaining Creditors, without preference or priority - It is impossible to say, what you may receive under this Assignment, as it greatly depends upon the price of the Agricultural produce - but, if you are not paid in full, what you receive, is only to be taken in part

11. Lines Inn Leeds
 17th April 1820

~~My dear Sir~~

~~My dear Sir~~
 Dear Sir,

I am sorry I happen to be engaged tomorrow and do so as to prevent me attending the meeting with Mr. Currie. The fact is that I have delayed putting in the examination of the Duke of York's case in Chancery as long as I possibly could and they have appointed to be with me tomorrow noon. I am more desirous to it. It is the longest time I could get and if it is not in tomorrow I shall have an application against

John Parkinson to A. Hillne them for a part of the sum - I am afraid I can render no assistance for the Banco lands are tied by the Injunctions in Chancery, and by the acts of the Parliament -

The Recorders are interrogated by the petitioners (and which they must answer an oath) what the Office of Yorks properly consisted of and what Mortgages & Leases there are upon them and in their answer they cannot avoid stating what the Mortgages & Leases in York shire are and consequently must state the whole £47000, which the Treasury paid to me in the Royal cheques Benefits & Pensions to be made to Secs. - If it was not intended to be Secs. for the whole amount - it is unfortunate that they were required to give <sup>of any application</sup> ~~of any application~~ <sup>of any application</sup> ~~of any application~~ of course having kept copies of each and the Recorders had such a knowledge of them <sup>as to make</sup> ~~it~~ <sup>it</sup> quite impossible to avoid stating them

The Recorders can have no objection to give Proposer & complete the sale under a proper Indemnity but in the present State of things it cannot be expected that they should do it without.

I am, Dear Sir,

 for paying, & the other parts not delivered.

I think he has been paid £500 on acct, but this will appear by Mr. Myer's Abstract.

Believe me
 Yours truly
