

Ld. Northampton.

June 12 1765

102

1/2 past 7

Sir, of Sovereigns

I have this Instant recd Yr. Mjesty's Information to which I was before a total Stranger having not seen or heard from one of Yr. Majesty's Ministers since I had the Honour of being last in your Closet. I have recd, <sup>a Summons</sup> & was going in my Coach to a Cabinet when Yr. Majesty's Servant stopped Me, upon what Business I know not.
No Person can more sensibly feel any Inconvenience affecting your Majesty than your most dutifull Servant; but while your Majesty preserves your Temper, & exercises your own very sound Judgment I trust & believe you will master the disa--greable Situation of the Times; that you may Sir is the Prayer of Yr most humble obed<sup>t</sup> devoted Servant & Subject Northampton

