

Duke of Cumberland

June 13 1765

106

Sir

Your Majesty gracious letter giving so ample, and exact an account of this days event was safely delivered into L^d Albemarle hands by the bearer who returned unnoticed

I can assure your Majesty that that no Stone shall be left unburnt by me for the Honour and Dignity of your Crown and for your particular Satisfaction and ease of mind and Sir thank God I am not singular for there are at present some as faithful Subjects as any Prince can have and who feel your Majesty personally as well as for the Support of the Crown

If I have no orders to the contrary I shall venture to trespass so far as to call at Richmond Lodge to know whether your Majesty has any commands for me next Sunday Evening

Duke of Cumberland

June 13 1765

106 (2)

I can not conclude this without rejoicing at this event being over without the impertinence of your servants having drawn any marks of anger that they might have laid hold of I remain with the utmost duty zeal & respect

Your Majesties
most obedient & humble servant
Subject & Uncle

Windsor Great Lodge
June 13ⁿ 1765

William

[Faint, illegible handwriting on aged paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the document.]

*John Comberland
Warden of the Exchequer
June 13.
1765*