

10654

1^o July 1802

Propositions humbly submitted to

The King

His Majesty having been pleased to approve of the dismissal of Spring the acting Keeper of St. Windsor Walk, it is submitted that his Wife who is the Widow of the former Keeper, and who has a numerous family to support shall have a Pension of £20 p. Ann.

That his Son who there is reason to believe will never be able to do the duty of Keeper, shall continue to receive a Pension equal to the Salary of the Place viz £25 p. Ann until he shall be of an Age to hold any little Place he may be thought worthy of.

That Rich^d of Chelmsbury the present Under Keeper to Ferrar whom be appointed Keeper of Old Windsor Walk, in the room of Strong Dissony.

Should His Majesty approve of this Arrangement, an additional expence of Forty five Pounds p^r Annum will be incurred, until the Day now under Ferrar's care can be provided for; but His Majesty will get rid of a very bad Servant, and the business of the Park will be much better performed.

Lord Pelham
July 2. 1702

10655

2 July 1702

X

Lord Pelham has the satisfaction of informing Your Majesty, that the Messenger, whom he sent to Dover, returned to town last night, having left Her Royal Highness the Princess of Orange & her suite on board the Packet at eleven o'Clock on Friday night, with a fair wind & very probability of a short Passage. Lord Pelham received a letter from Her Royal Highness at Dover expressing that she had borne the Journey without Fatigue & that she had met with no difficulties on the Road.

The Poll at Brentford is likely to continue another day at least but every part of London was perfectly quiet last night, & Mr. Manning came to Town without any Protestation.

July 2. 1802.

Duke of York
July 10th 1802

10656

House Guards July 8th 1802

Sir

I have the honor to transmit to Your Majesty the usual Monthly and Weekly Returns together with the Monthly Return of Quarters from the Quarter Master General as also to lay before Your Majesty the Recommendations for Vacant Commissions which have been received this week.

I had hoped to have been able to report to Your Majesty this week, that I had made the last arrangement concerning the Cavalry in Ireland as also upon the fate of the 21, and 25 Regiments of Light Dragoons, but Mr Addison's return to Paris being delayed till this evening, has prevented me from the possibility of doing them.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your Majesty's

Most Obedient Son
and Subject
Frederick

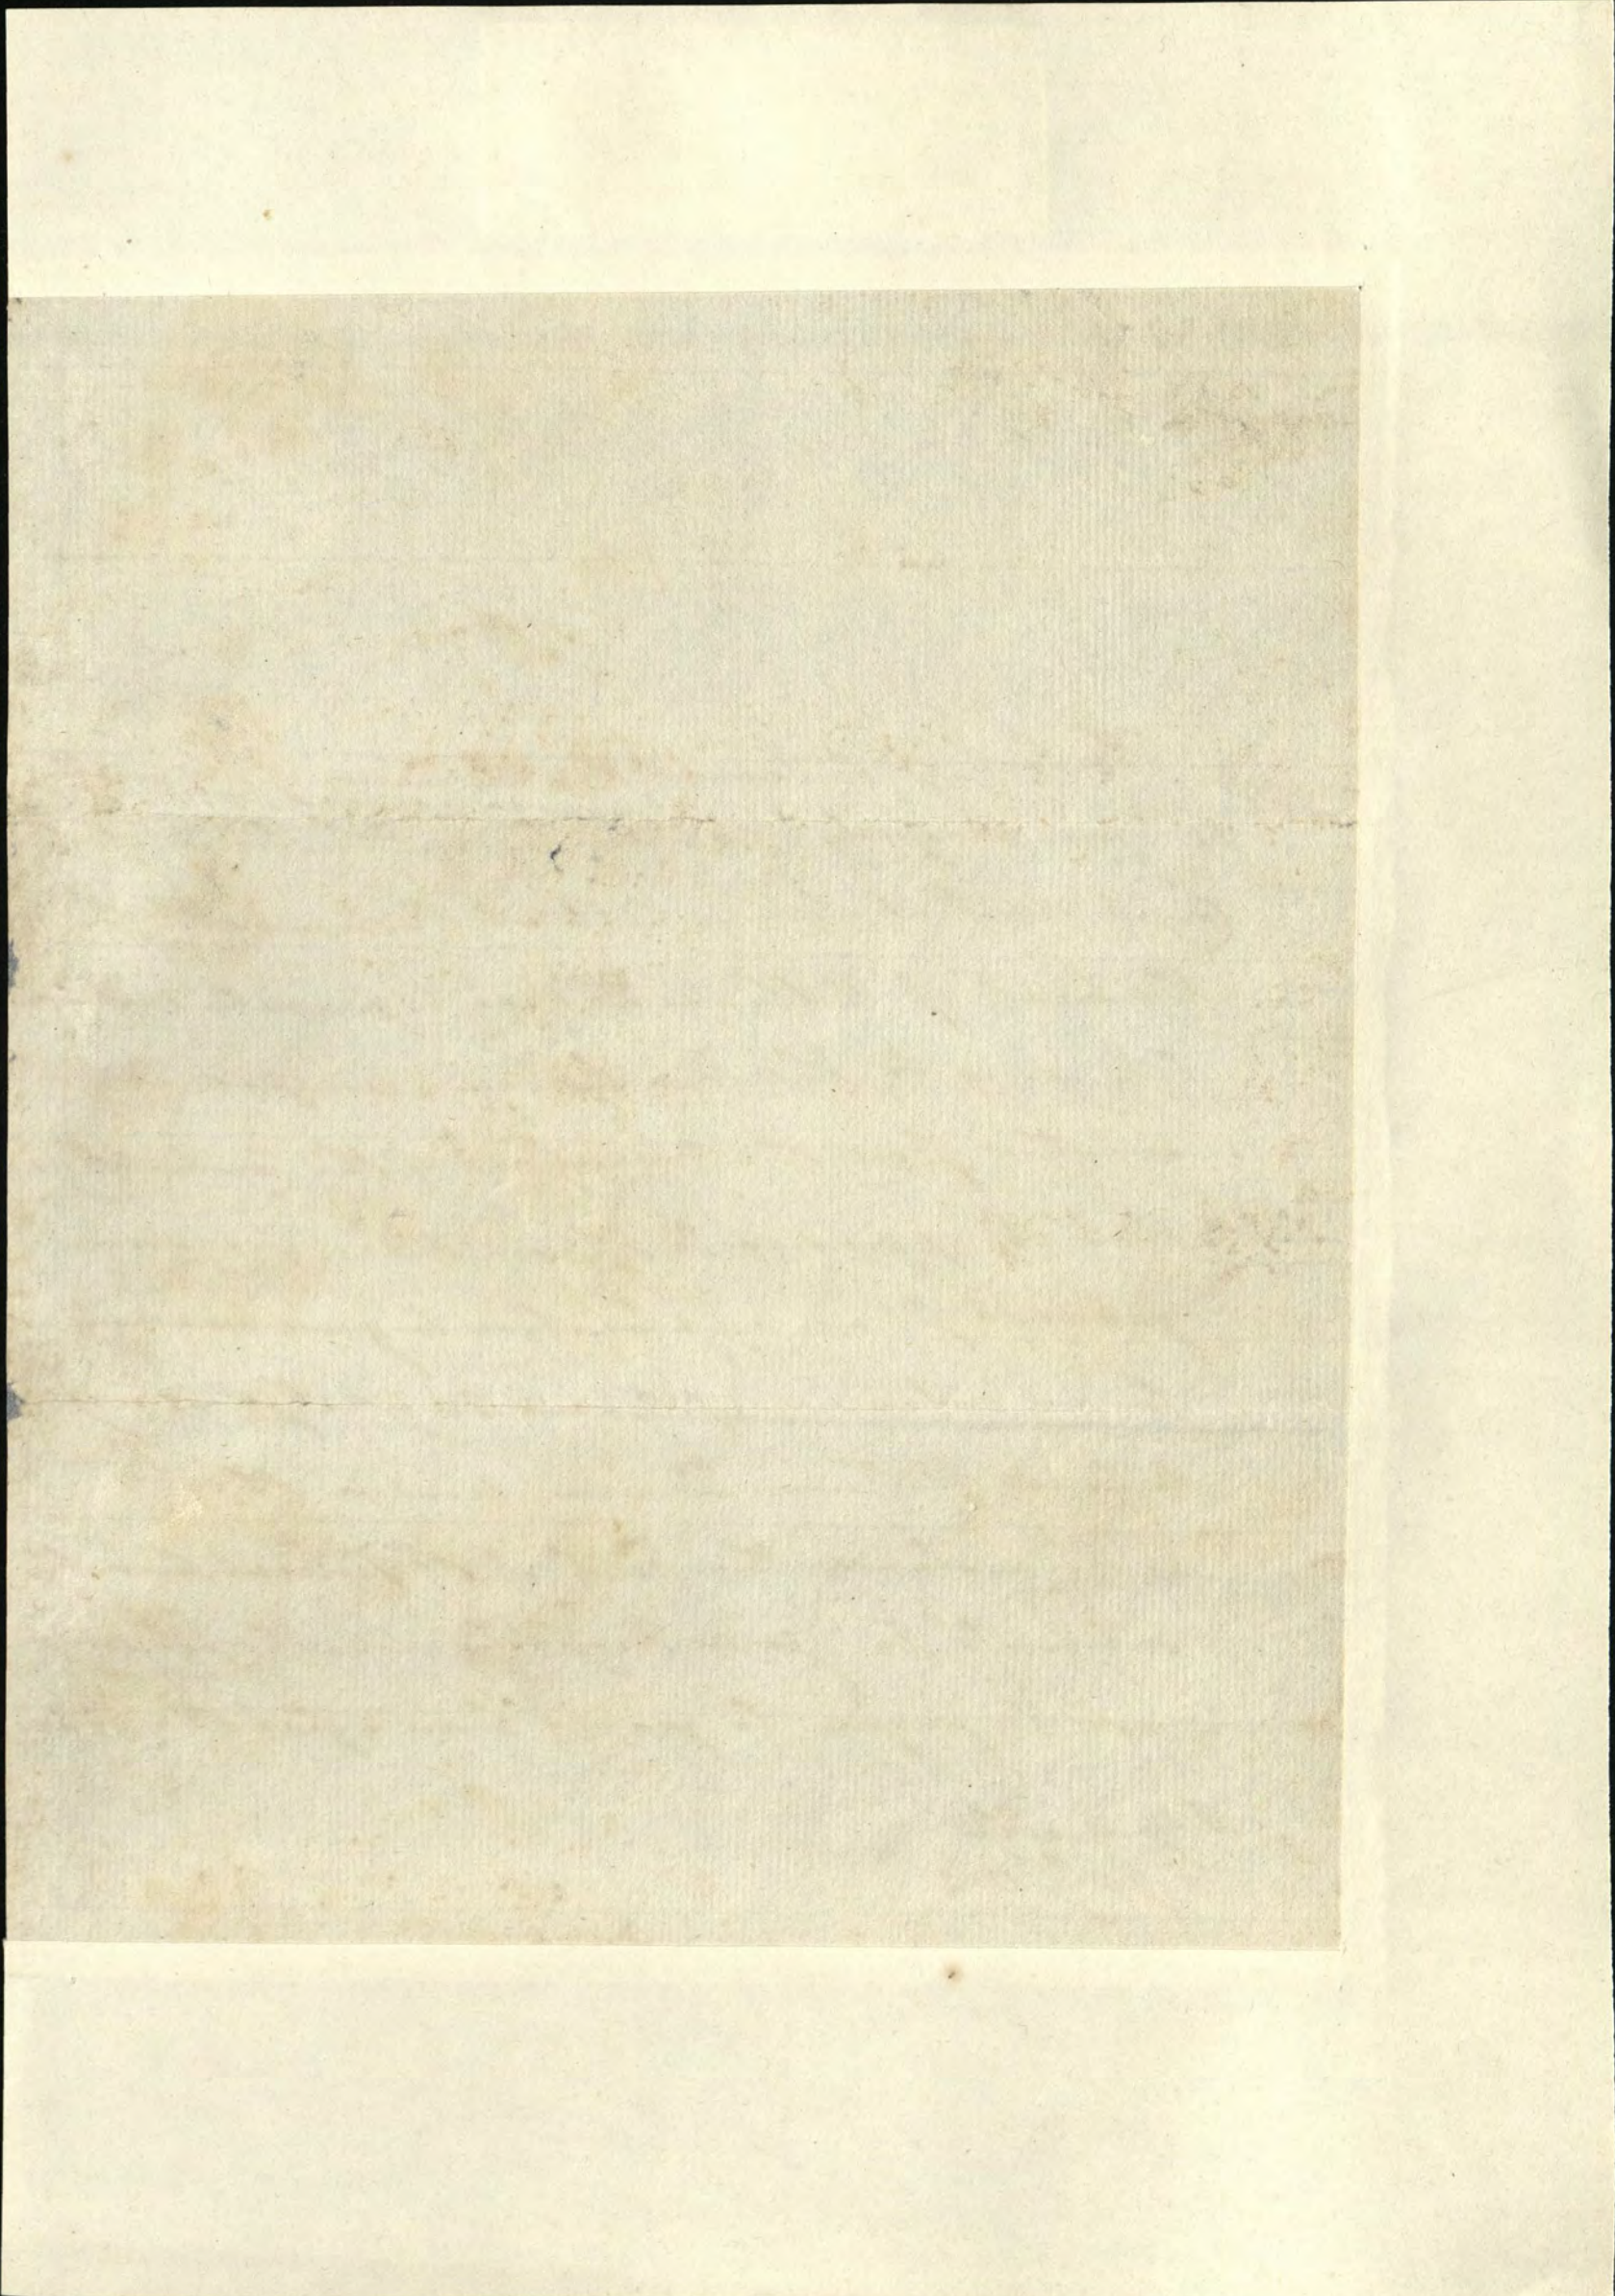

Lord St Vincent,
July 9th 1802.

10657

The Earl of St Vincent has the honor of transmitting to Your Majesty, the Minutes and Sentence of a Court Martial, lately held at Portsmouth, for the trial of William Davies a private Marine belonging to the Minchelsea, accompanied by a Letter from the Members of the Court, stating that it appears to them, there are some grounds for an application to Your Majesty for an extension of Your Majesty's Mercy towards William Davies: Under this circumstance the Earl of St Vincent humbly submits to Your Majesty, whether it may not be proper to grant him a free Pardon.

Admiralty
9. July 1802

Henry Addington

10658-9

Dorring Street.
July 21st 14th 1802.

Mr. Addington humbly submits to Your Majesty the Copy of a Letter, which, after much Communication with the Duke of Portland, the Lords Pelham, and Newkesbury, and Mr. Cragg, He has this Day written to Her Royal Highness The Princess of Orange; and he earnestly hopes that it will meet with Your Majesty's Approbation.
It is presumed that the Payment of an

He Annuity to The Prince of Orange, instead of a Sum in gross, will be more convenient both to His Serene Highness, and to this Country.

An Arrangement has been under Discussion with The Hereditary Prince of Orange respecting the Dutch Troops now in Your Majesty's Service; and Mr.

Addington has to express Your Majesty's Gratitude for having omitted to mention this Subject, as he had been requested to do by Lord Robert,

Henry Addington

10659 when He last paid his Duty at Windsor.

M^r. Addington was this morning honor'd with your Majesty's Commands respecting the Mode of proceeding, in consequence of the approaching Change in the Office of Lord Steward.

Mr. Adlington
July 14th 1702

Henry Addington to Princess of Orange
Enclosure

10660-1

Copy

Dorset Street -
July 27th 14th 1802

Madam,

In obedience to His Majesty's Commands, I have the Honor of communicating to your Royal Highness His Majesty's gracious Intention of recommending it to His Parliament to enable Him to grant to His Serene Highness The Prince of Orange an Annuity of £20,000, in consideration of the Losses, which He House of Orange has sustained within the last eight years; and likewise of proposing at the same time, that the sum of £60,000 be appropriated to the sole Use of your Royal Highness, as an especial Mark of His Majesty's Esteem and Favor, and as an Indemnity for the separate Expenses, which your Royal Highness has sustained during the Period, that has been mention'd.

Your Royal Highness will be pleas'd to consider this Communication as strictly

Henry Addington to Princess of Orange
Enclosure

10661 confidential, on Account of the Effect, which it might otherwise produce upon foreign Negotiations, and in consequence of the Necessity of submitting the Substance of it to the Approbation of the Parliament of the United Kingdom.

I have the Honor to be, with the utmost Respect, Madam,

Your Royal Highness's most humble,
and faithful Servant,
Henry Addington

Copy of a letter to Her Royal Highness
The Princess Anne

July 14th 1702

hd. Hobart

10662

Downing Street July 15^a 1802

Lord Hobart presents his humble duty to your Majesty and takes the liberty to transmit several Papers upon the subject of the Dutch Corps employed in your Majesty's Service —

The Papers marked N^o. 1, 2, and 3, contain the substance of the whole of the arrangements which Lord Hobart ventures to submit for your Majesty's approbation —

The other Papers are for the purpose of reference in the event of your Majesty's requiring further Explanation —

Duke of York

10663-4

Horse Guards, July 15 1802

Sir

I have the honor to lay before Your Majesty the usual Weekly Returns together with the Recommendations for vacant Commissions for Your Majesty's gracious approbation

I have at the same time to report to Your Majesty that I saw Mr Addington last Tuesday who continues still to urge the propriety of keeping the 25 Regiment of Light Dragoons upon the Establishment in preference to the 25th M^o because now becomes necessary for Your Majesty to appoint a Colonel to that Regiment in the Room of Colonel Beaumont who being only a temporary Officer is no longer eligible to hold that Commission in the Place,

In consequence of what Your Majesty was pleased to say some time ago upon this Subject, It is only Duty to mention Lieutenant General Gymp's name to Your Majesty for this vacancy, at the same time I beg leave to suggest to Your Majesty, whether as the Reduction of the 25th Light Dragoons can not take place for at least a year and a half, Your Majesty would approve of waiting for the removal of General Gymp till an older Regiment of Light Dragoons such as the 1st may become vacant, which must in all human probability happen in the course of that time and promote one of the Colonels of the Regiments of Light Dragoons to be reduced to the Command of the 25th.

Should this proposal meet with Your Majesty's approbation, I beg leave to mention Lieutenant General Parleton's name as the senior of the Colonels to be reduced, as probably Your Majesty will consider Lord Dorsset's better placed at the Head of a Heavy Regiment.

On Monday last I inspected the 1st Light Dragoons, and beg the Honour to report to Your

Duke of York

10664

My Majesty that the Body of her is remarkably fine perhaps too large and heavy for Light Dragoons.
The Horse, after General Gorge had made the List, of whom he could only keep under Supernumerary, are certainly Serviceable but considerably larger than any other Regiment of Light Dragoons, and of a larger kind, than she had a right to expect from the price that Your Majesty allows for the purchase of them and from the Quarters in which the Regiment has her since its return from Holland, the Regiment, likewise having been much dispersed in its Quarters, is inferior in point of exercise to any of the other Regiments of Light Dragoons I have inspected this Year.

I have the Honour to be

Sir

Your Majesty's

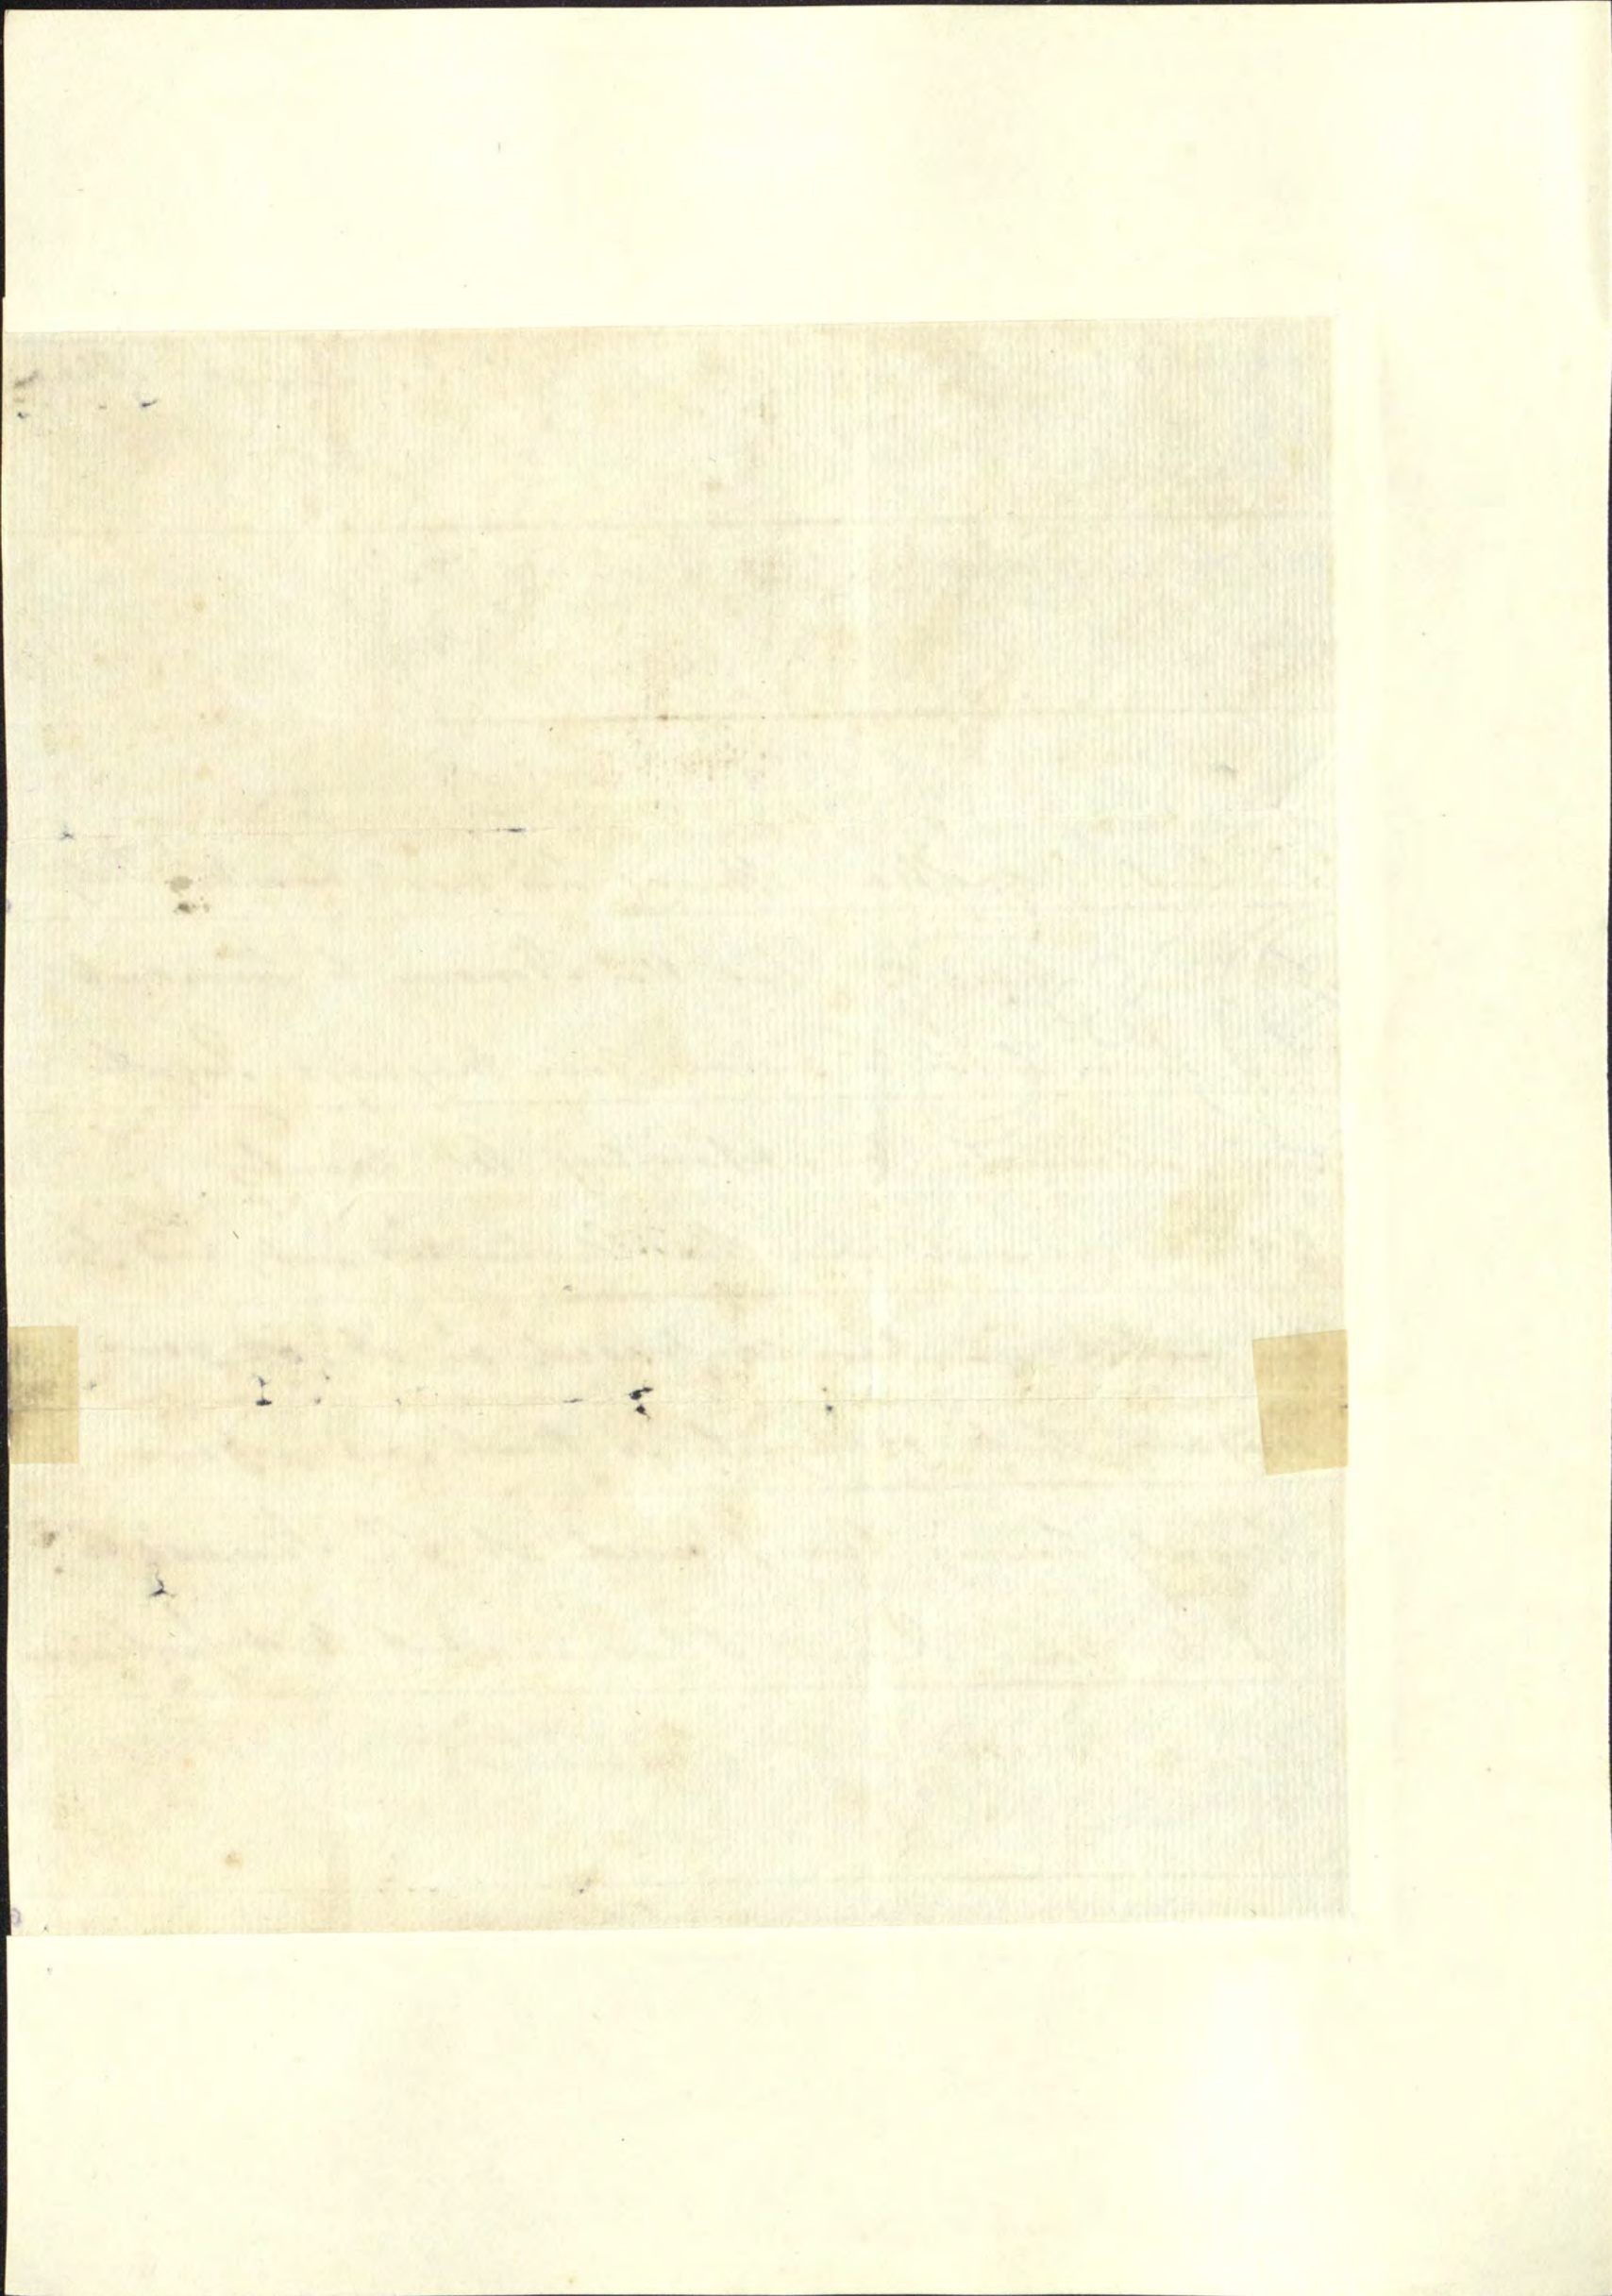

Most Obedient Son
and Subject

Frederick

Duke of York
July 15th 1692

July 16. 1802.

The Lord Chancellor, shewing his most humble Duty to your Majesty, has the Honour to transmit two warrants to receive your Majesty's Royal Sign Manual for appointing Mr Manly Attorney General upon the Chester Circuit and, for the other circuits comprised in it, if your Majesty shall graciously so think fit, your Majesty having been pleased at St. James's to express your Royal Pleasure that that Gentleman should succeed Mr Leicester.

hd. Pelham

July 16 1802

10666 - 7

Lord Pelham received the enclosed letter for Your Majesty from Her Royal Highness the Princess of Orange, last night Lord Pelham ordered one of Your Majesty's Messengers to attend Her Royal Highness to Dover

I bring back an Account of the Time of Her Royal Highness's sailing Lord Pelham takes the Liberty of sending to Your Majesty two Letters from Notary (whose Correspondence Your Majesty has occasionally seen); he is one of J^r Francis Burdett's committee

hd. Pelham

July 16 1802

10667 sitting at Mr. Fox's in Piccadilly Lord Pelham flatters himself that the Precautions which have been taken for preserving the Peace in London, will prevent any bad consequences from the very mischievous Hand-Bills which have been circulated —

July 16. 1802 —

Lord Biltmore

July 16th 1882

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Ld. Pelham

July 17 1802

10668-9

17 July 1802

Lord Pelham humbly begs leave to inform Your Majesty, that in obedience to Your Majesty's commands communicated by Mr. Addington, he has received the Staff from the Earl of Seester who desires to lay himself at Your Majesty's feet & solicit a continuance of his office as Mr. James & the privilege of driving thro' the Parks Lord Pelham has been informed by

The Bishop of S^{ts} Asaph that he will be ready to do homage to your Majesty, on the Wednesday after next.

It therefore your Majesty should be graciously pleased to receive the Staff of the Steward of the Household & to permit the Bishop to do homage at the same time, Lord Pelham will humbly request your Majesty's commands, about the day, that may be most agreeable

Ld. Pelham

July 17 1802

10669 but be to your the next should receive of the

- Bishop
time, by request but the greater

To your Majesty, In the Bishop of St. Asaph & Lord Pelham to pay their duty to your Majesty

If it were not taking too great a Liberty Lord Pelham would venture to suggest Tuesday the 24th — of this month.

July: 17. 1802

Lord Buller

July 17. 1882

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

Ld. Pelham

July 22 1802

10670_1

22 July 1802

+

Lord Pelham most humbly imploreth your Majesty's forgiveness, when he proposes to charge the day for receiving passage from the Bishop of S.^t Asaph; who has just informed Lord Pelham, that the Privy Seal being in Nottingham it will be impossible for the Bishop to be confirmed before Tuesday next, but as that ceremony may take place on the morning, the Bishop can not leave until Wednesday on Wednesday night or early on Thursday morning, so that if Your Majesty should be graciously

Ld. Pelham

July 22 1802

10671 disposed to receive the Bishop on Thursday and Pelham will communicate V. Majesty's orders, & will just to attend himself

July 22. 1802

Lord Bellam
July 22^d 1802

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

[Faint, illegible handwriting]

Lord Hawkesbury
July 24 1802

10672

Lawrence Hood
July 24 1802

Lord Hawkesbury humbly submits it to Your Majesty that it is of considerable importance to the Commercial Interests of the Country, that a Person should be sent to Madrid without further delay, in the Character of Consul Gen^l. Lord Hawkesbury recommends for this Situation Mr Hunter, who is at present acting as Vice Consul at Lisbon
He has been for some Years Consul at Seville, knows the Country and the Language thoroughly, & bears in every Respect a very good Character. It will ^{serve} ~~be~~ ^{to} send the Appointment to Mr Hunter at Lisbon and to order him to proceed to Madrid as soon

soon as possible

Lord Hawkebury humbly recommends to Your Majesty Mr Lamb to succeed Mr Arbuthnot as Consul at Lisbon Lord Hawkebury can vouch for Mr Lamb's competence for the situation from many years intimate acquaintance with him

Mr Addington
July 24 1002

10673

Downing Street -
July 24th 1002.

Mr. Addington has heard that the Appointment of a Governor of the Charter House in the Room of the late Lord Kemper has lapsed to your Majesty. He presumes to flatter himself that he did not misconceive the Sentiments entertained by your Majesty last year under similar Circumstances, and accordingly ventures, with all Humility, to express the high Gratification he should feel in being distinguished by Your Majesty's nomination upon the present occasion.

hd Pelham

July 27 1802

10674 - 5

July 27. 1802.

Lord Pelham flattered himself with the hopes of the Midsummer election being finished at the end of last week, but as it now appears that the contest will be kept up to the last & that every means are employed to excite the Papists & Subjects of the Populace, & that in fact there are very large crowds of People assembled every day; Lord Pelham humbly hopes that your Majesty will approve of his remaining in London until this scene of riot, is over, in order to watch the

hd. Pelham

July 27 1802

10675 fact of day;

hopes approve on it, is he proceedings of those who seem inclined to disturb the peace of the Metropolis, it also to support the Magistracy, by his presence, in the Court of it is being necessary to have recourse to any measures of extraordinary vigour.

Lord Pelham

July 27 1702

Lord Pelham has great satisfaction in informing Your Majesty, that tranquillity has been, hitherto preserved in every part of the Town. by the good behaviour alone, & he feels confident that by the same Vigilance & Precaution it will be continued.

Lord Pelham hopes that under these circumstances he may leave London on Friday & pay his duty to Your Majesty on Saturday.

Mr Addington
July 20. 1752

10676

Dorset Street.
July 20th 1752 -
1/2 P. 2. P. M.

Mr Addington anxiously hopes that He shall not be deem'd by Your Majesty to have yielded too far to his Affection, and Consideration for his Son, and to the Opinion of his Friends, in having recommended to The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury, and in having himself procur'd in his Appointment to the Office of Clerk of the Pells, lately become vacant by the Death of Colonel Barre. It may not be immaterial to add, that this office was given to the eldest Son of Sir Robert Walthole, when a Minor.

Mr. Addington proposes to join his Family at last Bourse, on Friday next, and, with your Majesty's Permission, to remain there during the Month of August, except when public Business calls him to Town.

hd. Pelham

July 28 1802

10677_8

+

July 28. 1802.

Lord Pelham is not able to give your Majesty an account of the Result of this day's Poll but he understands that a description of Persons have been admitted to vote by the Sheriffs, who being in great numbers may possibly obtain the return in favor of Mr. Francis Burdett, altho it is impossible that they should ultimately be admitted as good Voters.

Under these circumstances Lord Pelham has thought it his duty to assemble the Privy Counsellors, & to communicate with the Lord Mayor, for the purpose of preventing any tumultuous rejoicing or illuminations. & he flatters himself

Ed. Pelham

July 28 1802

10678

It, all this should
good votes.
Ed. Pelham
assemble municipal purpose rejoicing himself

Not the same vigilance which has in virtue preserved the Peace of the Metropolis will not be wanting on this occasion —

Lord Betham
July 20th 1792

Duke of York

July 29 1702

10679

Army Guards July 29 1702

Sir

In transmitting to your Majesty the usual Weekly Returns together with the Recommendations for Vacant Commissions, for your Majesty's approbation I have nothing particular to report to your Majesty but the arrival of the remainder of the 79th Regiment at Portsmouth, on board of the Generous.

In consequence of an application from Lord Biddan stating that riots existed in the neighbourhood of Poultney and Bradford I have been under the necessity of moving the 16th Regiment of Light ^{Dragoons}, as also two Companies of the 31st Regiment into Whitehall.

Every precaution is taken to suppress any Riot which may happen in the Town in consequence of the Election of the Bole for Middlesex this day.

I am the Honour to be

To

Your Majestys

most dutifull son
and subject

Frederick

Henry Addington to

July 31 1802

10680 - 1

East Bourse -
July 31st 1802.
1/2 P. 10. P. M.

It is highly gratifying to Mr. Addington to be assured of your Majesty's gracious Approbation of the Appointment of his Son to the Clerkship of the Pells.

He feels great Reluctance in troubling your Majesty upon another Subject, which has already afforded him a fresh Proof of your Majesty's Goodness; but before He waits himself of the Permission, with which He has been honored, to communicate your Majesty's Pleasure to the Archbishop of Canterbury respecting the Vacancy at the Charter House.

He thinks it incumbent upon Him to state, that it is the Vacancy, occasion'd by the Death of the Earl of Desmond, Lord Eldon, as Mr. Addington has very recently learnt from His Lordship, having been elected by the Governors to succeed Lord Henyon.

Mr. Addington is truly grateful for the Manner, in which your Majesty has

Henry Addington to

July 31 1802

10681

His Majesty's
Charterbury
Charterhouse
Him to cession
St. John's has very which, being
to
for the city has condescended to mention his Family.

He found them more improved than he expected, upon his Arrival at Eastbourne this Evening.

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a folded piece of paper]

Mr. Schombergton
July 31. 1802

Lord Pelham
July - 1782

10682

X

Lord Pelham feels the greatest satisfaction in being able to inform Your Majesty that Hadfield & Dunlop are both safely lodged in Bath. Every thing is perfectly quiet in London.

