

H. H. to Duke of Cumberland

June 20 1765

108

* Dear Uncle

As I am very anxious to know what Mr. Rockingham & others think of the proposal concerning an Alliance with Russia & Prussia, & what they have to propose if Mr. Pitt should decline Office without it, I am desirous therefore of seeing you if convenient at Richmond this evening or here tomorrow about Eleven, I remain

Queen's House

<sup>m</sup>
26 post Eleven A.M.

Dear Uncle
Yours most affectionate Nephew
George J.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on aged paper, possibly a letter or document fragment.]