

June 30, 1765

LBN.

Should precede 115
Duke of Cumberland

118

Sir

With the utmost concern at not being able to obey Your Majesties commands I must excuse myself until tomorrow evening about seven when if I have no contrary orders I shall attend at Richmond

It is but this moment that the Duke of Newcastle Lord Buckingham & Albemarle and General Conway are set out for Claremont where a number of friends dine & who are to be surrounded

D

I must not disguise but that I Temple language does but too much harm & the Person to whose name they have back'd so much odium, is so frightful in the eyes of weak, mean, and so convenient in the hands of knaves that they overturn as fast as honest men can build

I am engaged from duty & inclination & as long as the rope will hold I'll draw

June 30, 1765

LBN.

Should precede 115
Duke of Cumberland

118(2)

I remain with the utmost duty zeal and affection

Your Majesties
most obedient attached ~~and~~ ~~affectionate~~ ~~subject~~ subject & Uncle

$\frac{1}{2}$ part three

Sunday Windsor Lodge

William

27 of Lambert
William Lodge