

A. M. to Lord North

1266

Queen's House Feb: 17th 1772
26 p: 7. 8. h.

Lord North, As Mr. Comptroller did not bring the Address from the House of Commons this day, I desire you will send the enclosed answer to Him which may be delivered by Himself if well enough, if not by the Vice Chamberlain without the Ceremony of waiting untill my next levee day.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]