Feb. 21 1722

Lord North, I have this morning received from Lord Rockford the letter of Lord Mansfield enclosing a second proviso, I shall certainly not opine it, and therefore as the Cabinet with Lord Mansfield the Drafter of the Bill think it right it should be put into the Body of the Bill before presented to the House this day, I find you have a Cabinet upon it this Morning, I will certainly be at twelve at St. James's ready to receive you.
