

A. M. to Lord North

1291

Feb or Mar. 1772

Lord North, should send for the Advocate General and direct Him to draw up the form of a Warrant appointing Him Lord North my Commissioner for Administering the late Prince's Dowager of Wales having died without leaving a Will

The effects of my late Father ought to be separated from those of my late Mother.

Then Lord ought to have a reference made to the Attorney and Solicitor General, to know whether the Assets of my late Father are not subject to his Debts and whether the Bond Debts are not to be satisfied in preference to all others.

2^o Whether such of my Mother's Jewels as were given
Her by my Father are not subject to His Debts.

A copy of the proceedings proceeding for settling the Affairs of my late Mother and dividing Her effects from those of my late Father.

Handwritten text on a piece of paper pasted onto a larger sheet. The text is written in cursive and is mirrored across the page, suggesting it is bleed-through from the reverse side. The handwriting is dense and fills most of the rectangular area.

Lord North, should send for the Advocate General, and direct him to draw up the form of a Warrant appointing Lord North His Commissioner for Administring, the late Princess Dowager of Wales having died without a Will.

The effects of my late Father ought to be separated from those of my late Mother.

Then Lord North ought to have a reference made to the Attorney and Solicitor General, to know whether the Assets of my late Father are not subject to His Debts, and whether the Bond Debts are not to be satisfied in preference to all other Debts. Also whether such Jewels of my late Mother as were given Her by my late Father are not subject to His Debts.
