to the House I, 109

Lord North, The Establishment for my third and fourth sons ought to commence from Midsummer, as these put about them have been from about that time waiting till the House on New Green could be put into order; I take it the Establishment of my Elder Sons is paid to Lord Holderness this will therefore also be the same.

The death of Calcraft will I trust bring the Borough of Rochester into its antient hands. I hope you and your family will enjoy every kind of comfort during the stay in Oxfordshire and in Somersetshire; if any thing should occur during your absence you may depend on hearing from me
