Lord Suffolk has the honor to submit a Decree to Your Majesty in which there is a Decision that perhaps ought not to have been expressed without the Opinion of Cabinet.
But as the State of his health of late has not allowed him to assemble the Cabinet, and as he believes there are none of your Majesty's Servants who would wish other other Instructions to be sent to M^r: Gunning than those which the enclosed Draft contains, he has no scruples of acting on this occasion without the Sanction of a Meeting, if he is so fortunate as to receive Your Majesty's approbation of what he has written; and Your Majesty does not think it necessary that it should be previously considered in in Cabinet. He is going to Hampton Court, from whence he returns on Thursday, in hopes of having the happiness to pay his Duty to Your Majesty again on Friday.
